Denton Senior High School

Foreword

Another school year has almost passed. It has marked the renewal of many Denton Senior High School traditions and the beginning of a new one.

We have expressed our respect for Denton High by deeming the golden Bronco on the floor of the south hall as sacred ground, unmarred by trampling feet.

A new tradition was started when the Student Council presented the Victory Flag to the student body. When this flag is flown, a surge of pride is felt by everyone. It is the symbol of a school, a tremendously hard fighting team, and a well-earned victory for Denton Senior High School.

The western trend seen throughout the 1963 Bronco is one familiar to all, for this idea is the theme of the school. And, in the years to come, as you leaf through the pages of the yearbook, you will see that it was designed to be a lasting remembrance of the spirit shared by all.

Our First Step Toward

Success . . . BRONCO LAND

BRONCO LAND . . . as we climb life's ladder, it is certain that our thoughts will occasionally drift back to our high school days. The '62-'63 years will be impressed forever in our memories as ones which gave Denton High new traditions and teachers.

The STADIUM . . . on Friday nights the deserted stadium was engulfed by the contagious excitement of cheering fans urging the Broncos on to victory. At halftime the Bronco Band demonstrated new routines and marches, each number filling the spectators' hearts with unequaled pride.

The BONFIRE . . . the largest, grandest ever seen at Denton High. Sophomores wandered about, awed and uncertain of what was expected of them. The juniors yelled themselves hoarse, having no thoughts but that of the game the next night. The seniors experienced sadness and fright, for this was their last bonfire and in May, they would leave DHS forever.

The GYM . . . at times it was filled with girls in shimmering formals, but from November to February the basketball team dribbled the ball to victory.

The CLASSROOMS . . . a new wing was added during the summer to accommodate the rising number of students. 1054 were enrolled, and upperclassmen felt invaded by sophomores.

The PRACTICE FIELD . . . during football season, the band was constantly drilling. Their eight o'clock sessions won them sweepstakes in Interscholastic League thirteen years in a row. In the spring, the baseball team worked diligently in the hope of winning another district championship.

The BUSES . . . everyone boarded into the buses for school trips. The bus drivers were wonderful; they never complained about the off-key singing. On Friday nights, the pep club girls, football boys, and band members would load and form a bus caravan to the out-of-town games.

The SCHOOL . . . yes, every brick and glass window, every nook and cranny will be remembered forever.

Dedication

You are in constant demand to give advice and aid to us when we are choosing our subjects and planning our schedules for each school year. With your help, the seniors are often able to steady their uncertain plans for the future. Due to your ceaseless effort, we consider you one of the truly dedicated members of our faculty.

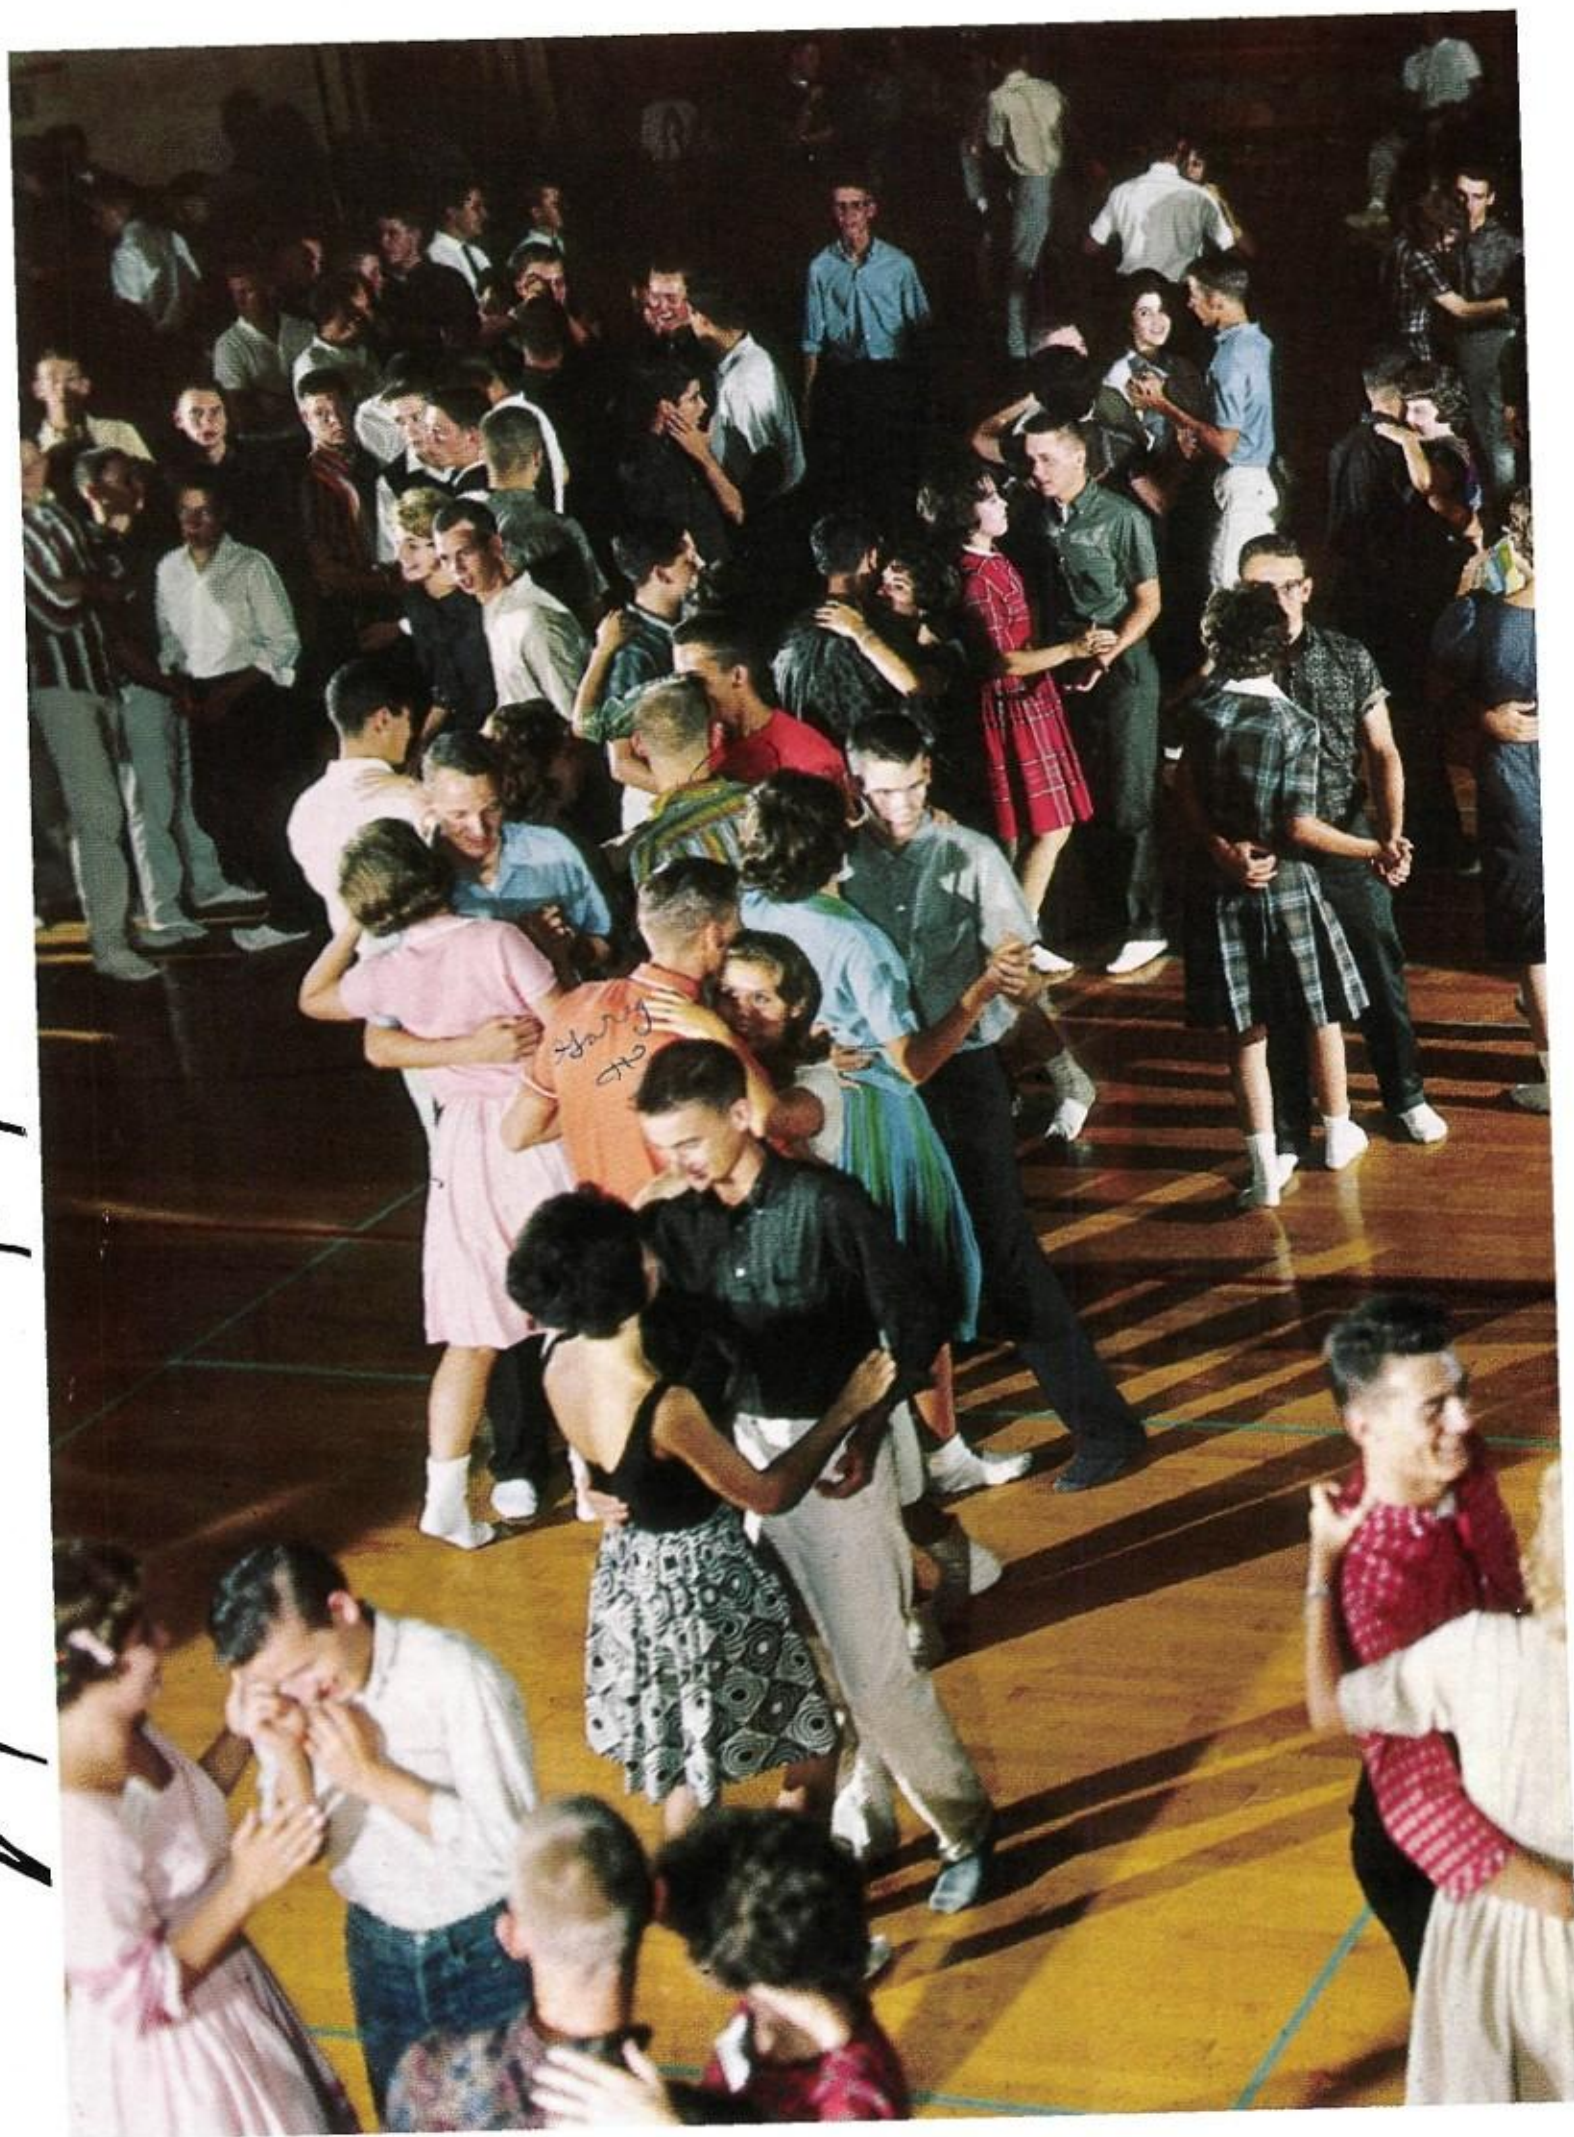

With heartfelt appreciation for the services you have rendered to Denton Senior High students, we dedicate the 1963 Bronco to you, MRS. MAXIE DIBBLE.

Becky Clearman and Larry DeLisle are assisted by Mrs. Dibble, school counselor, in making a schedule change.

Schedules, Yearbooks,

The Student Council's efforts toward welcoming new students on registration day provided a general atmosphere of friendliness and good cheer. President Mike Gregory, with Susan Rowlett, Pam Harker, and Gary Shaw were busy preparing one of the "Howdy Stations" found at DHS.

Go! Go! Go! It appears the go "got up and went" for Nancy Buntyn and Martha Griffin. The entire Bronco Staff labored diligently selling yearbooks on registration day. This was the third year the staff has sold annuals during registration.

Cathy Lambert and Malynn Brooks begin their first day at DHS searching for their advisory teachers. Excited, if not a little bewildered, many sophomores and transfers wandered through the halls of Denton High for the first time.

and "Howdy Cards" Prevail on Registration Day

One more turn and Dwayne Gray and Roy Godi will have completed one of the many tasks that launch each school year.

The traditional problem of changing schedules is presented to Mr. Spears and Mrs. Mewhinney by Kay Griffith and Wylie Masten.

The pleased expression on Miss Parson's face indicates that Bill Ashby and Joan Barnett have been placed in high English.

Howdy Dance Opens Year's Activities

Friendly smiles paid off for Paul McConnell and Cindy Shaw when they were presented as Mr. and Miss Howdy.

It's not that the twisting was too rough, but Paula Brown, Rusty Faught, Jeanne Garrett, and Sharon Milliken decided to sit this one out.

Charlotte Puckett and her date were one of the many couples at the Howdy Dance. The theme for the dance was "Come stag and snag"; however, the festivities broke up early due to the flooding of Denton streets.

Mike Gregory and Sharon Guyer, Student Council Officers, officially crown Cindy Shaw with the traditional Miss Howdy ribbon.

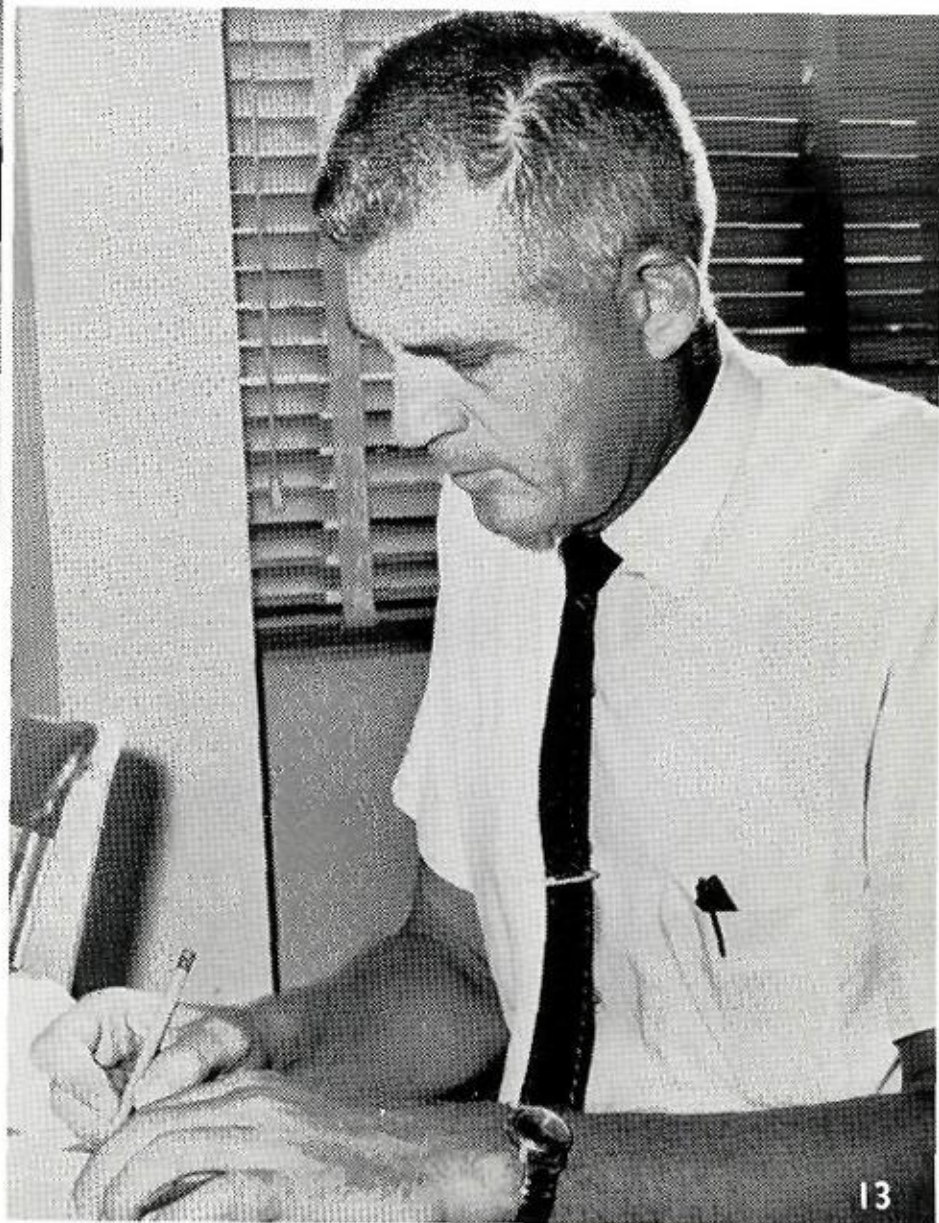

Confusion Dominates First Two Days

Mr. Guyer delivers his annual welcoming speech to the student body. Explaining the various reasons for the unfinished building, he urges the students to be cautious and, if possible, avoid the building materials.

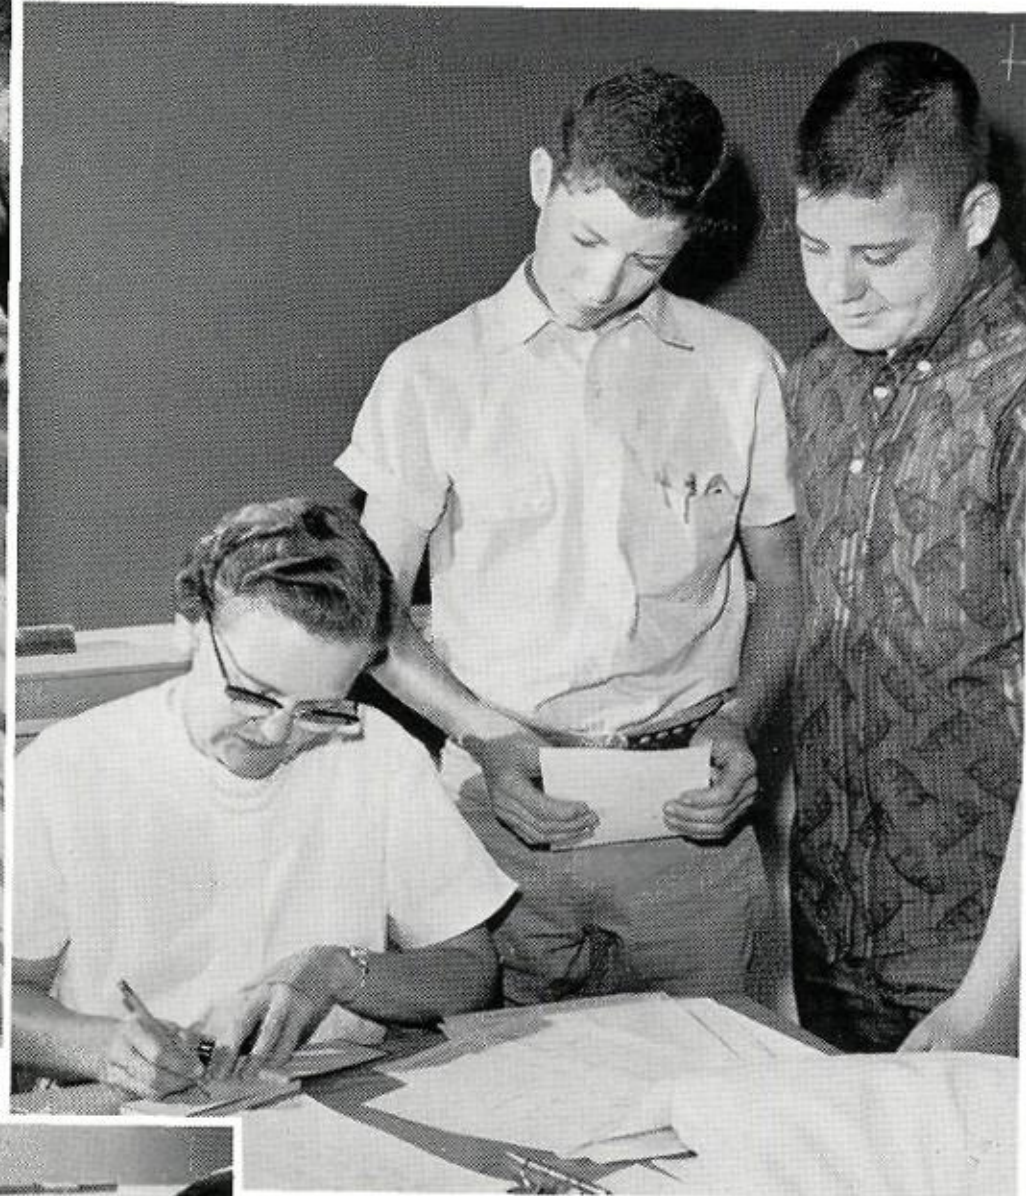

This year as in previous ones, DHS was extremely fortunate in having some new faculty members. Eight teachers confronted our student body for the first time, they are Mrs. Vaughn, Mrs. Kelso, Mrs. Parks, Mrs. Woods, Mrs. Leyendecker, Mr. Ellis, Mr. Holt, and Mr. Whitson.

Mr. Hyman begins the wearisome task of recording locks and their combinations. At the beginning of each school year, the administration is confronted with many dull and dreary jobs that must be smoothed out before school can officially open.

Excitement and

The smooth and efficient issuance of text books was made possible by the diligent efforts of Mrs. Hudson.

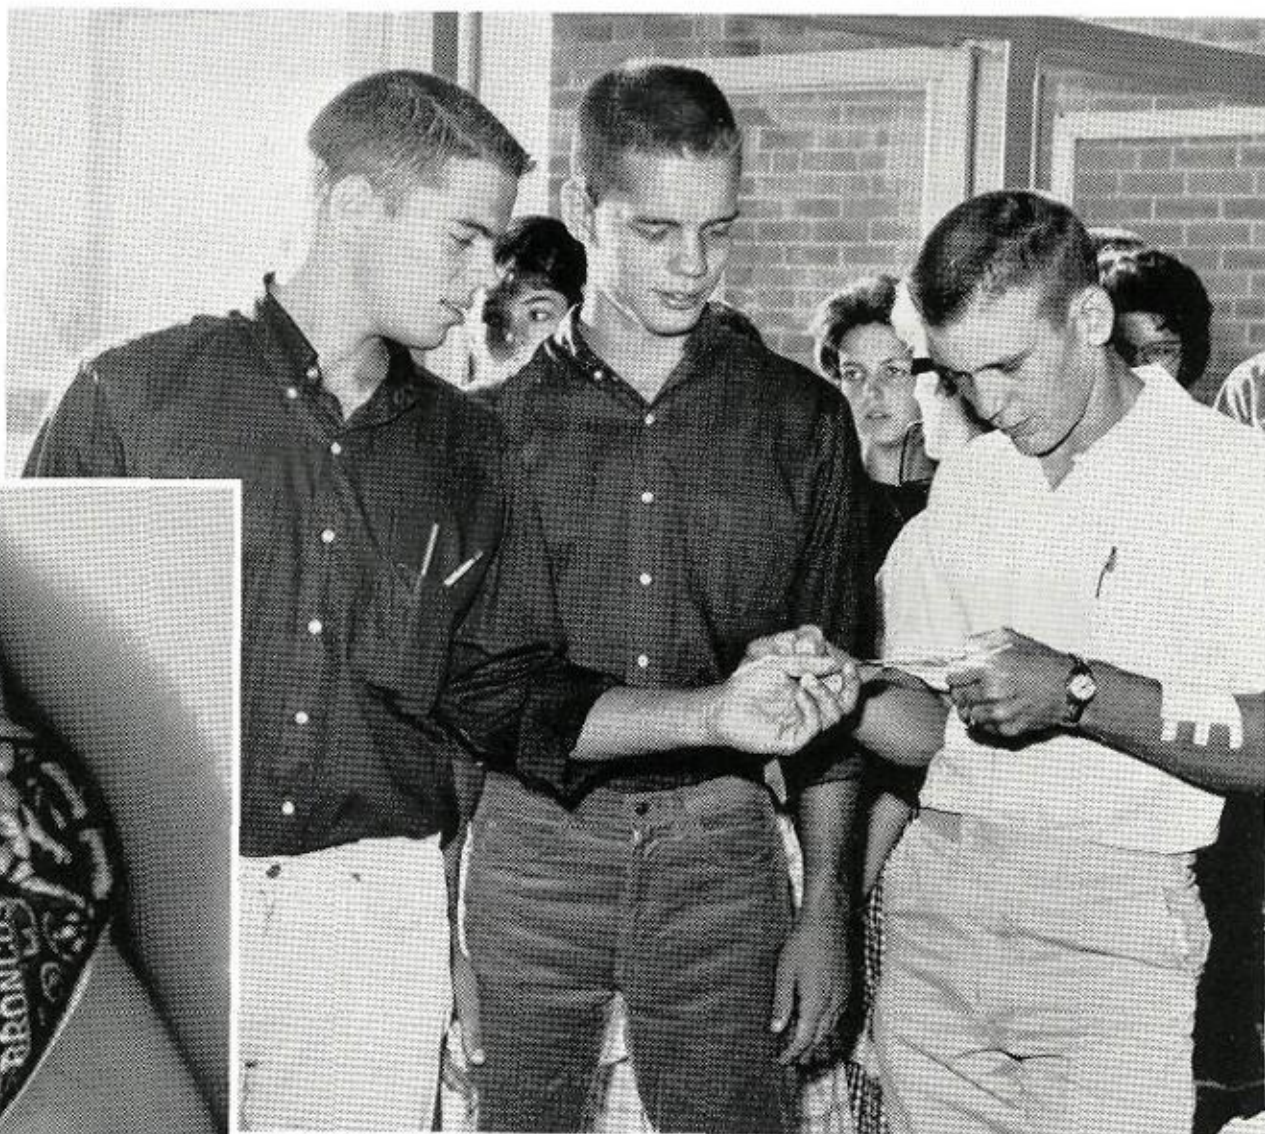

Mrs. Hutchison issues locker receipts to Bob Harris and Mark Hannah in an advisory group meeting.

Mrs. Fouts confronted her sophomore geometry class for the first time reassuring them about their next three years at high school.

Arrival of Rings Spotlight Beginning of Senior Activities

Anxious to get their senior rings, Tim and Jim Barrett examine John Peel's instructions on the care of the rings. Behind them, Polly Broday and Bertha Buskirk await their turn, sleepily wishing the line would move faster.

Our senior rings! The moment every senior anticipated arrived September 15, when the rings were distributed.

At Last! Kenneth Riney eagerly picks up his long awaited ring, but the attention of Betty Pitts and Charlotte Krueger seems to have been caught by the camera for the moment.

Pep Rallies Boost Spirit

Mike Gregory, Student Council president, presents a victory flag to the Denton Senior High School student body on behalf of the Student Council. The flag, displayed by Pep Club members Ann Porter and Cindy Shaw, will be flown for a week after a Bronco victory and on special occasions.

Tri-Captains Jimmy Williams, Charles Byrom, and Gary Shaw were introduced along with the other members of the football team at the first pep rally of the year.

Enthusiastic students are led in a yell by a group of cheerleader hopefuls at the 1962 tryouts.

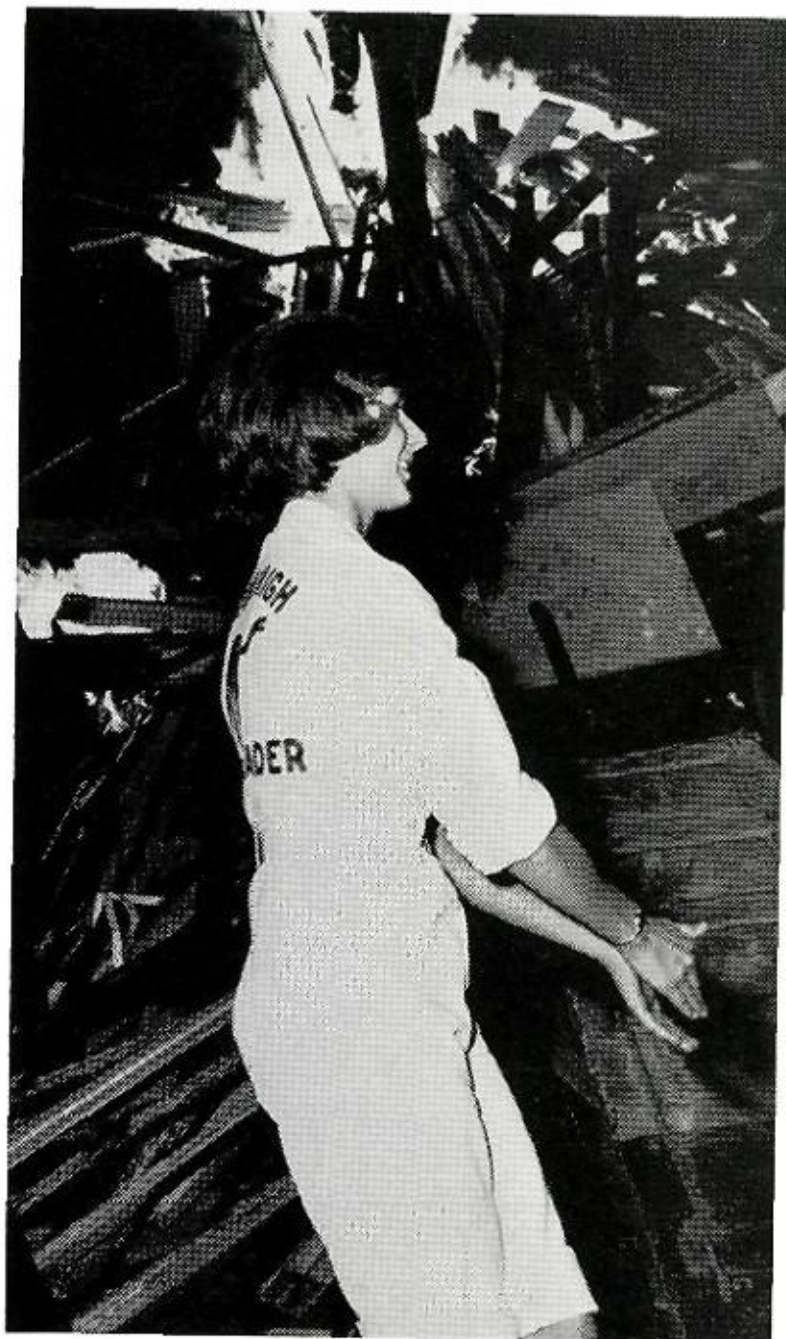

The band pauses during a pep rally while a spirited yell for victory is given by DHS students.

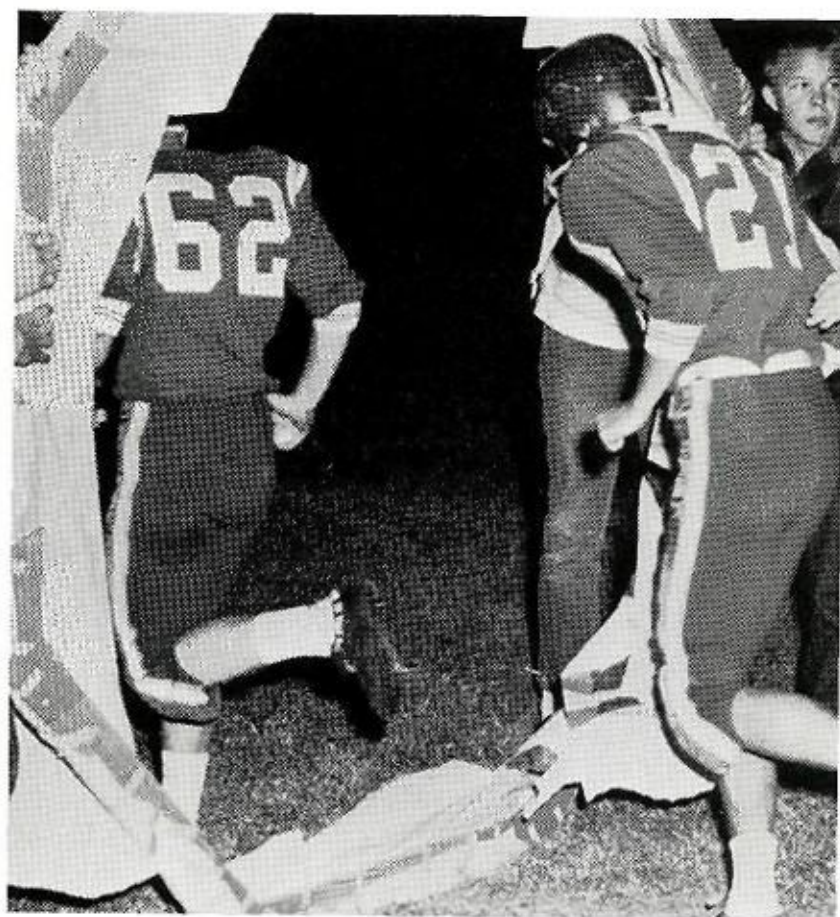

Gary Shaw, one of the tri-captains of the Broncos, jumps through the paper hoop arousing the fervor and spirit of Bronco fans.

Bonfire Reflects the Warmth of Homecoming

Becky Clearman enthusiastically leads the crowd in a cheer at the DHS Homecoming.

From the backside of the hoop, Dick Gambrell and Tom Taylor jump through the hole already broken by Gary Shaw.

Fall Activities

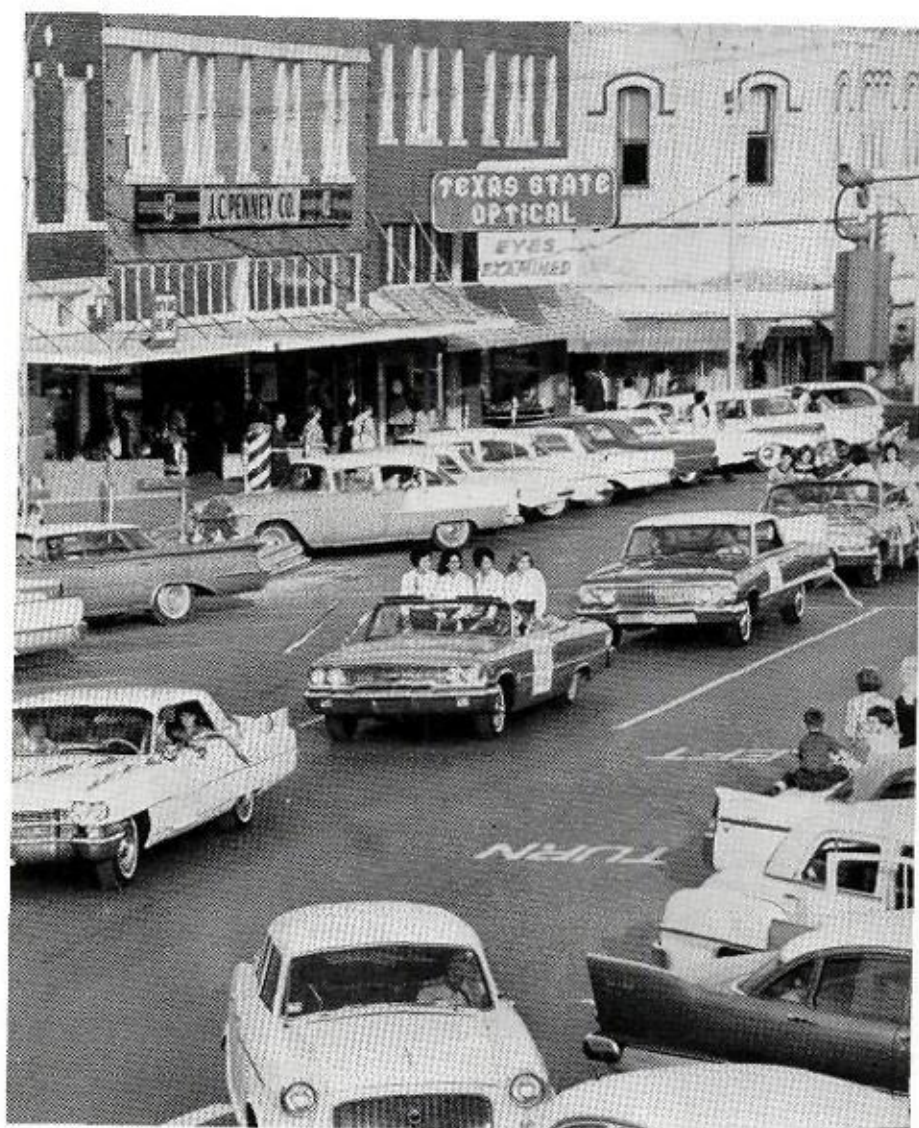

From the first bright flames of the bonfire to the last dance, Homecoming was the highlight of fall activities. Spirit for the game was aroused as students gathered for the first of the activities, the bonfire. Halls and lockers, decorated by Student Council members and cheerleaders, cast a happy shadow over the big day. The assembly featured a program of varied talent presented by Denton High students. A parade, consisting of cars and floats decorated by various organizations, circled the square and main streets of Denton. Pre-game activities included the presentation of Homecoming Queen nominees, Betty Brinkman, Linda Fulton, Ruth Martin, and Gale Reeves. Then the big moment for one of these girls arrived, Linda Fulton was crowned Homecoming Queen for '63. Bronco Wonderland, the theme of this year's dance, came alive as The Misfits started the dance with a lively number. One large wilted mum, tired feet, and a loosened tie put the final touches on the best Homecoming ever seen at Denton High School.

Floats and cars entered by various organizations provided pre-game enthusiasm for the night's activities.

Magnified by Homecoming

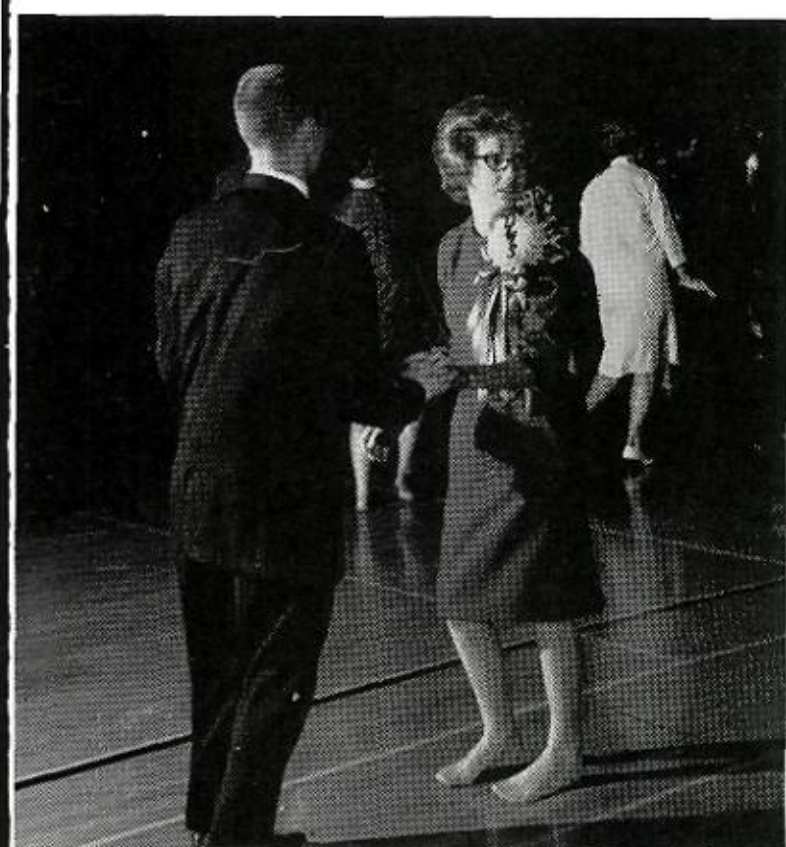

Exes, Joe Skiles and Marianne Gerding, revisit their alma mater, "good ole Broncoland."

The final activity of a busy week ends in a calm way as Ruth Martin, George Cockrell, David Haun, Carolyn Clark, Samilou Robison, and Ron Niemann enjoy a quiet dance.

Amid the streamers of Bronco Wonderland, the Misfits kept the dance at a lively pace. The group from North Texas State University proved to be the "life of the party."

Suzanne Peters and Gary Richardson find the music great for a cool jitterbug.

Talent Assembly Is a Highlight

Astronauts Sharon Guyer, Pam Harker, Anne Thomas and Mike Gregory serve as commentators for the Homecoming assembly brought to us by telestar.

Dr. Paul Baker, one of Denton High's oldest exes present at the assembly, was awarded a plaque of recognition by the Horseshoe Staff.

The Denton High Stage Band, composed of Bronco Band members, provided background music for the assembly. Distinguished guests Chester Strickland and Prof. Calhoun, along with the Homecoming Queen nominees, can be seen on the outer space stage.

of Homecoming Festivities

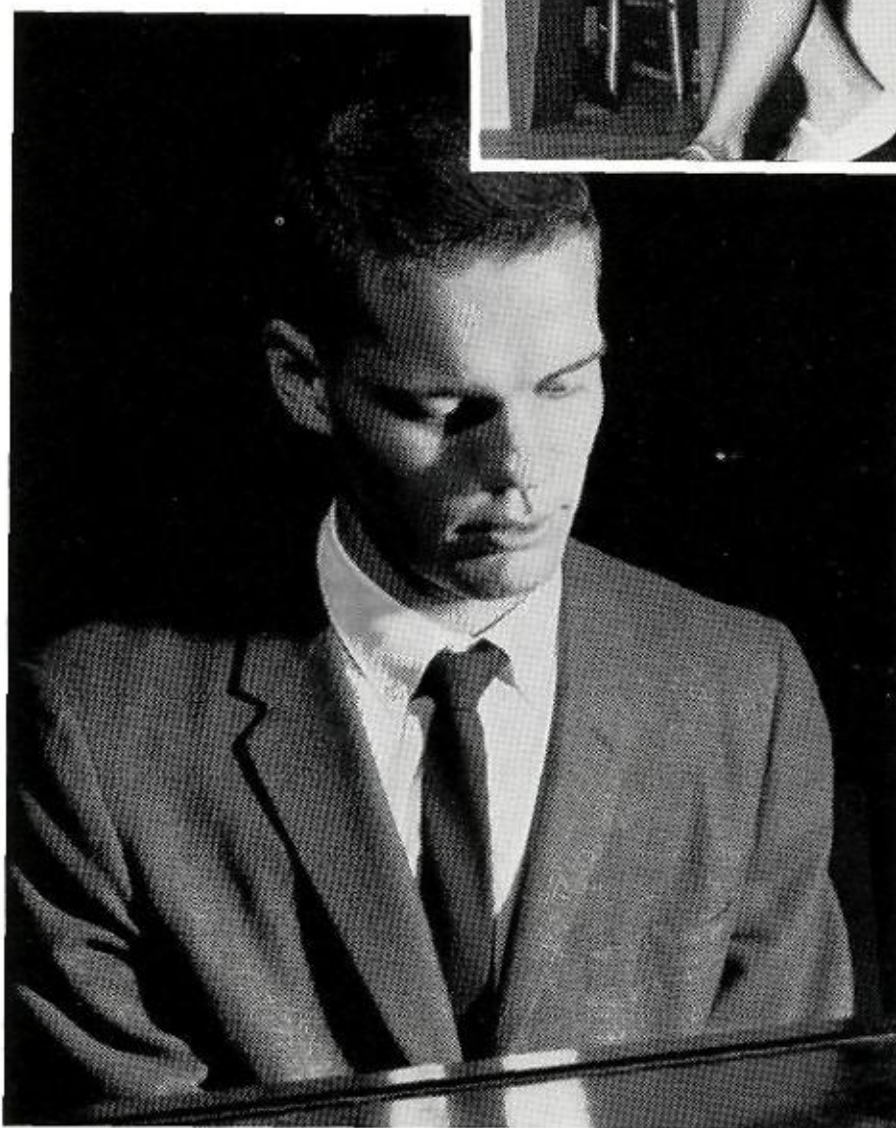

Hoboes Bobby Glenn Brown, Raymond Fletcher, Stover Robertson, Mickey Miller, Freddy Stringer and John Cundiff, members of the A Cappella Male Chorus, sang the ballad "Fast Freight."

Susan Marquis presented a jazz special. Meanwhile, Johnny Tompkins displayed an uncanny interest in modern dancing.

"Baby What Do You Want Me To Do," crooned John Dupree. Assisted by Lee Harris, John serenaded the student body on the Homecoming assembly.

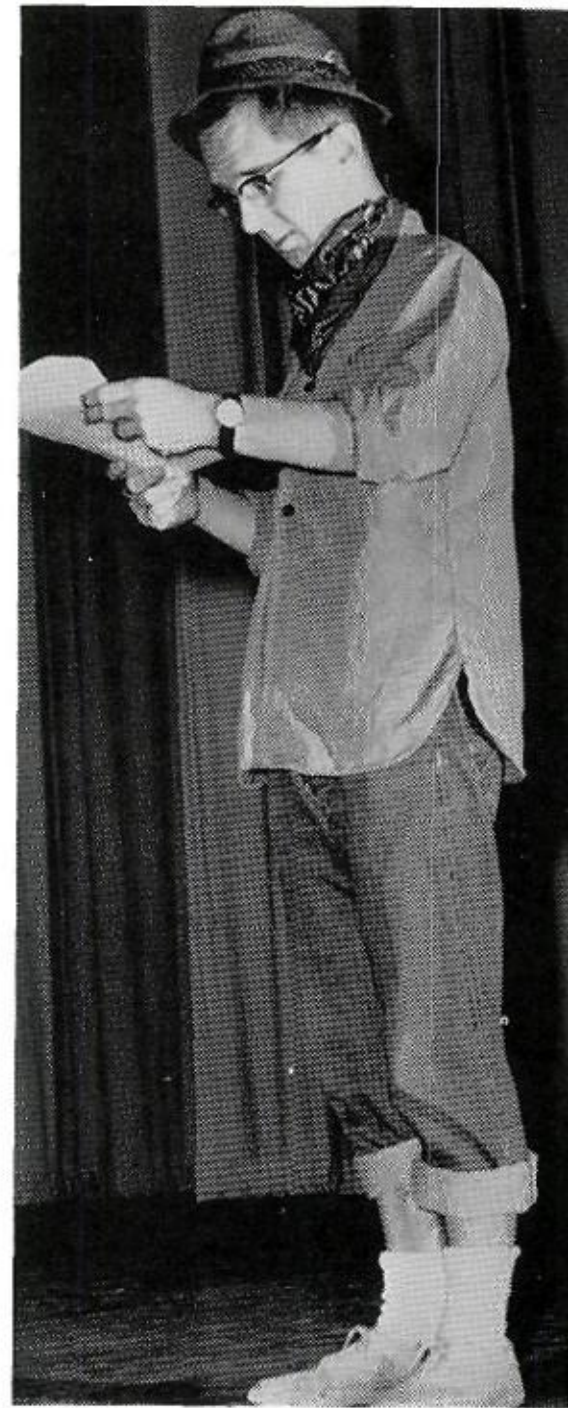

Tim Barrett's expressive face readily shows the mood of his piano interpretation "Prelude in G minor" by Rachmaninoff.

Favorite Nominees Show

Steve Fromholz prepares to lead the Children's Chorus—Gale Reeves, Julie Avery, Francine Jameson, Joy Duncan, Bill Ashby, Johnny Burks, Becky Clearman, Ruth Martin—in a rousing chorus of "Hi Ho, Ciceroni."

With a worried look on his face Bob McMath frantically hunts for his next line in the Pogo script.

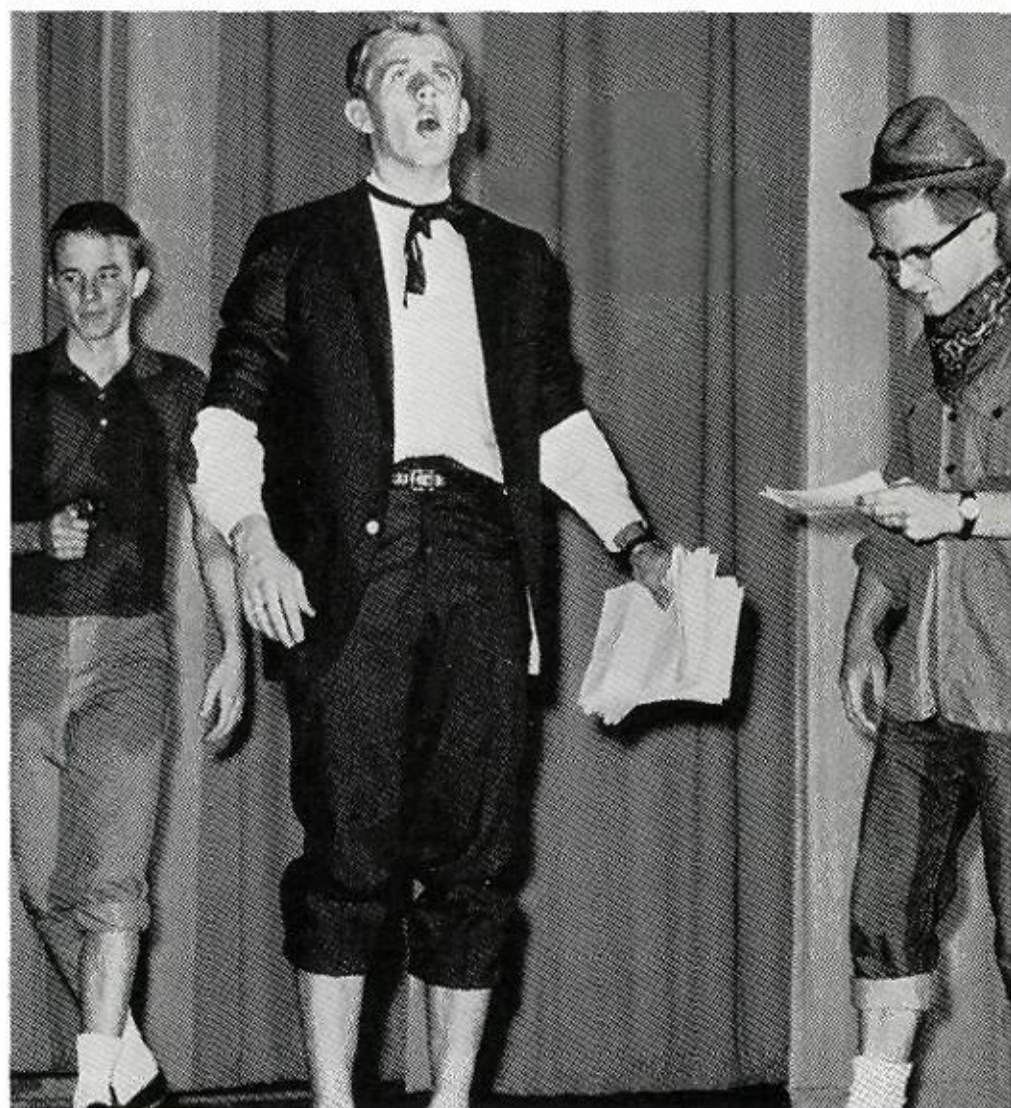

Maria, and Annie Oakley jealously eye Miss Kitty who seems to have claimed Marshall Dillon's affections. Roles are played by Sharon Guyer, Peggy Mays Bobby Houser, and Mike Gammon, respectively.

"Qualifications" in Skits

Linda Henderson and Jimmy Massey appear to be worried as Don Davis confidently shows Terry "Hoss" George his hand.

Mafia contact McMath distracts the victim's (Steve Fromholz) attention as member Mewhinney goes in for the kill.

VEERHHH!

Gary "Cannonball" Massey prepares to return enemy fire . . . literally.

Jim Bowie (Rick Barnes) gets a visit from Rigor Mortis and dies laughing.

"Favorite Follies Antics"

Much to the surprise of John Porter, (Mr. Guyer), Gary Shaw and Anne Thomas procede to "walk down the aisle" after graduating!

Mr. and Miss DHS nominees Mike Gregory and Vicki Voltz show their extra-curricular activities by knocking out the unsuspecting victim, Gary Shaw.

Vivacious Paul McConnell teams up with handsome Pam Harker to demonstrate the latest waltz to DHS students.

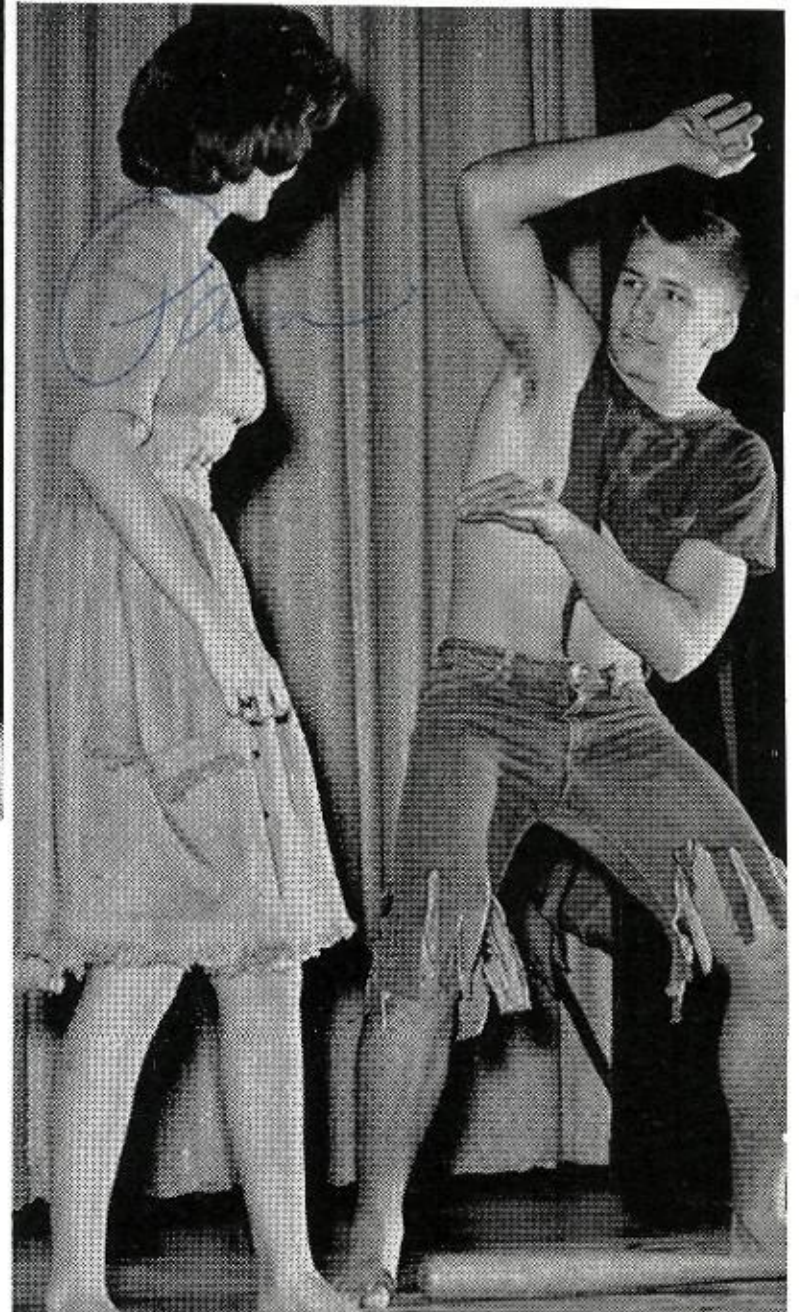

Judy Davis lunges for the ice cream cone that David Buck refuses to relinquish.

Amuse Audience

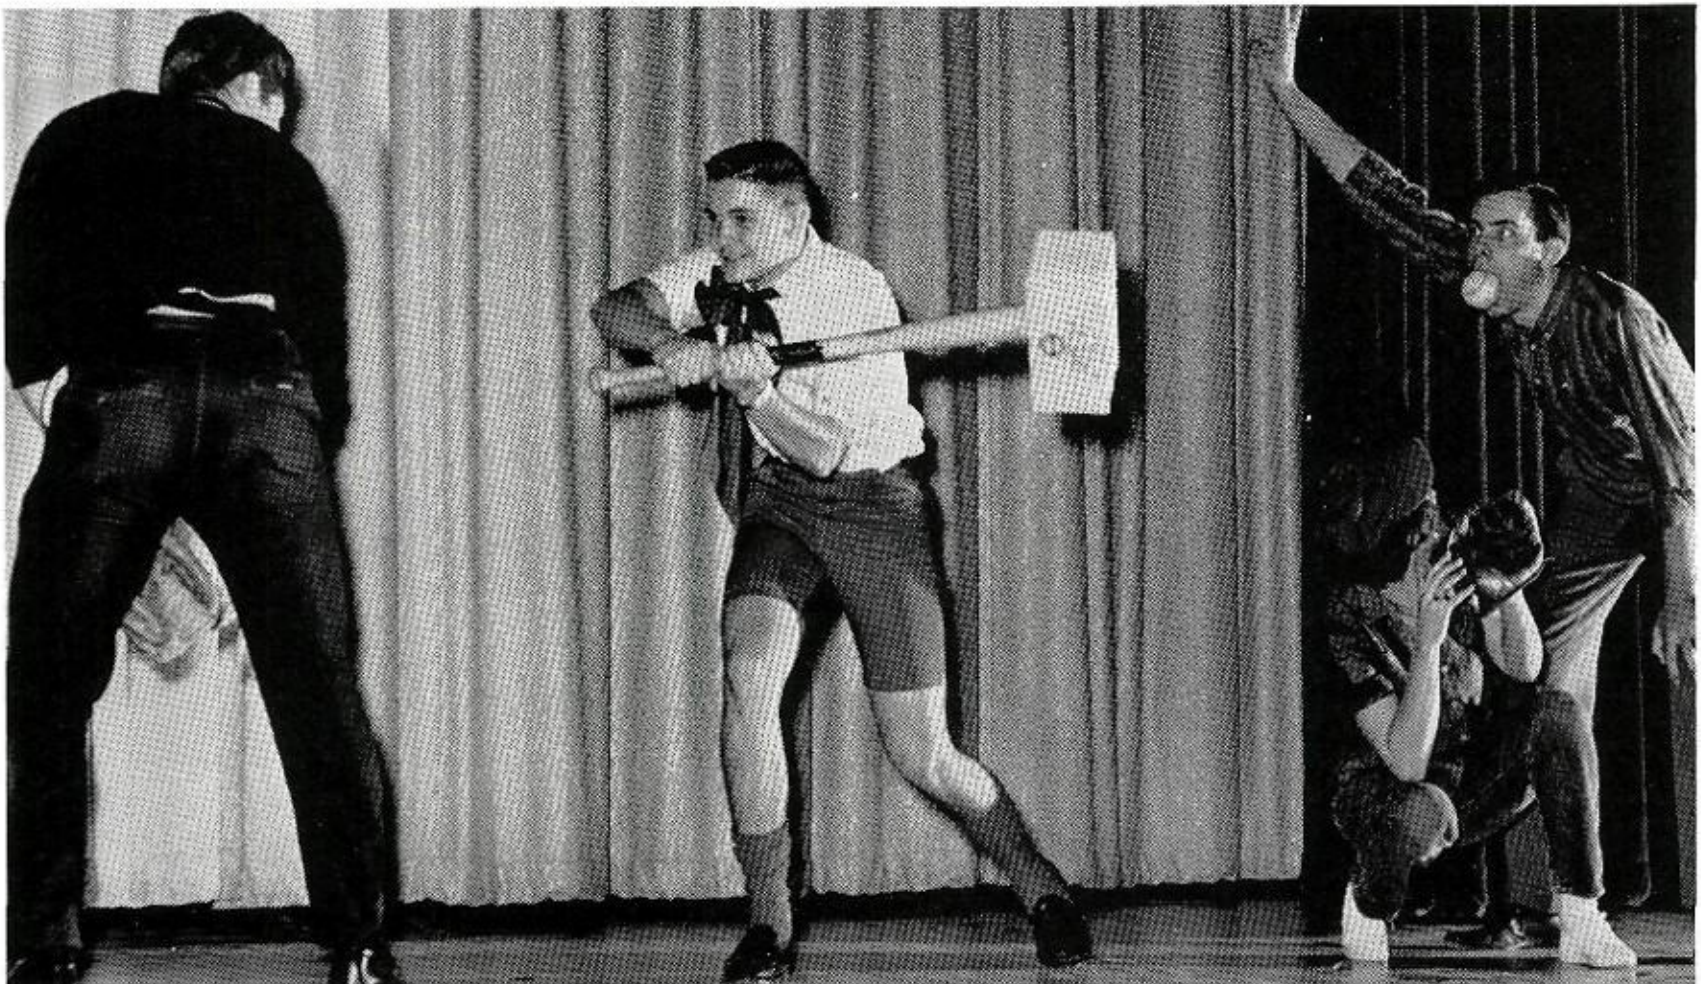

Caveman Gary Shaw employs a new method in winning his woman Pam Harker.

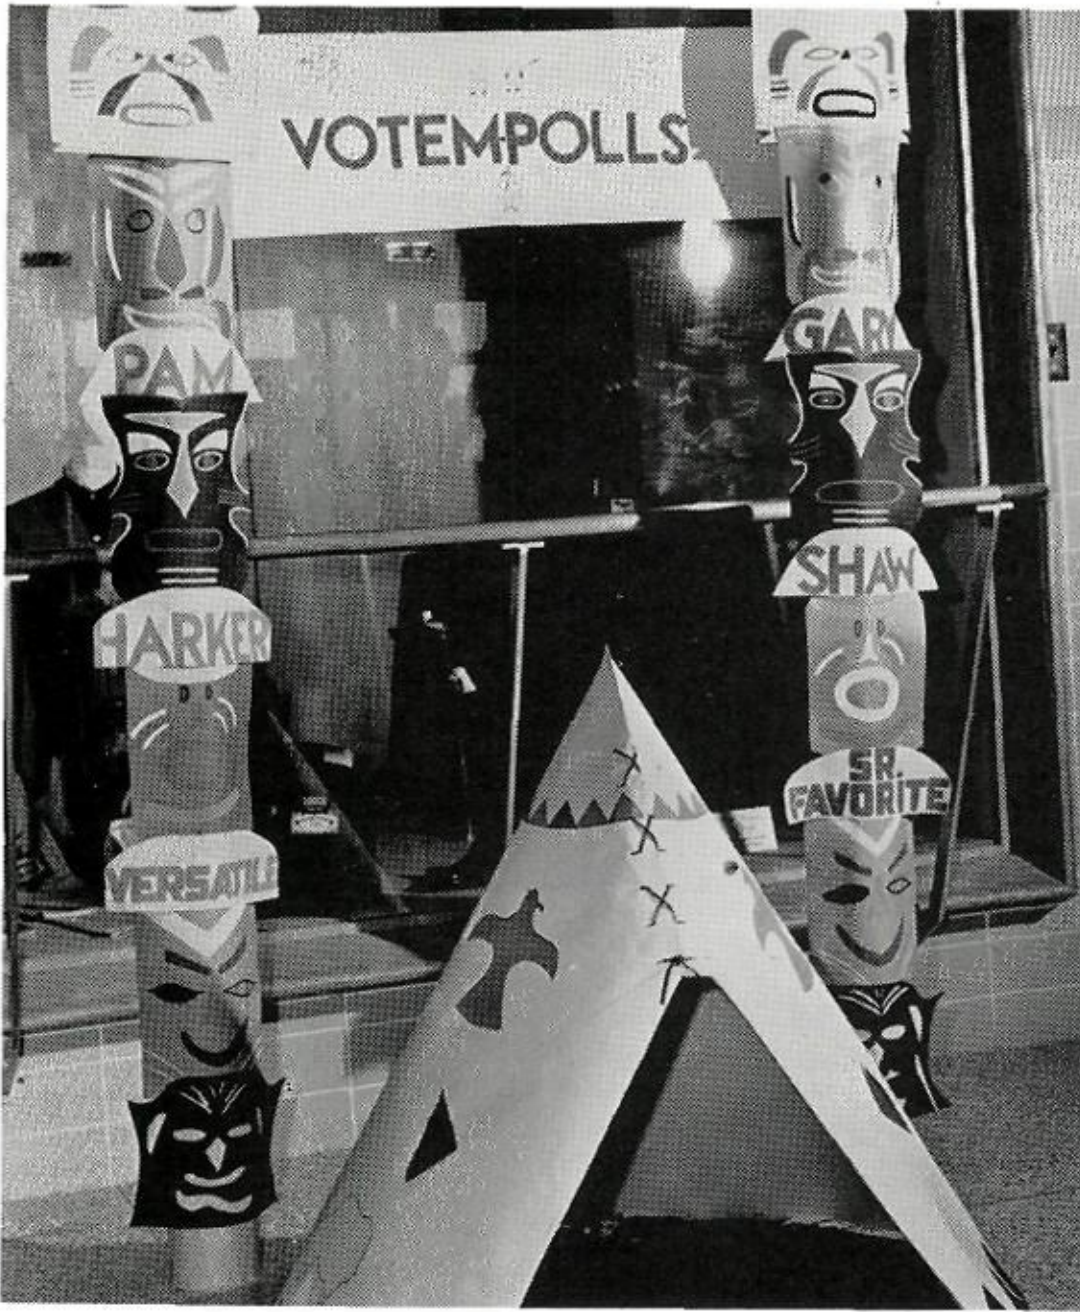

The entire crew of skit No. 3 formed a choral group conducted by Bill Dudley to sing as their finale a chorus of "Laugh All The Day Long."

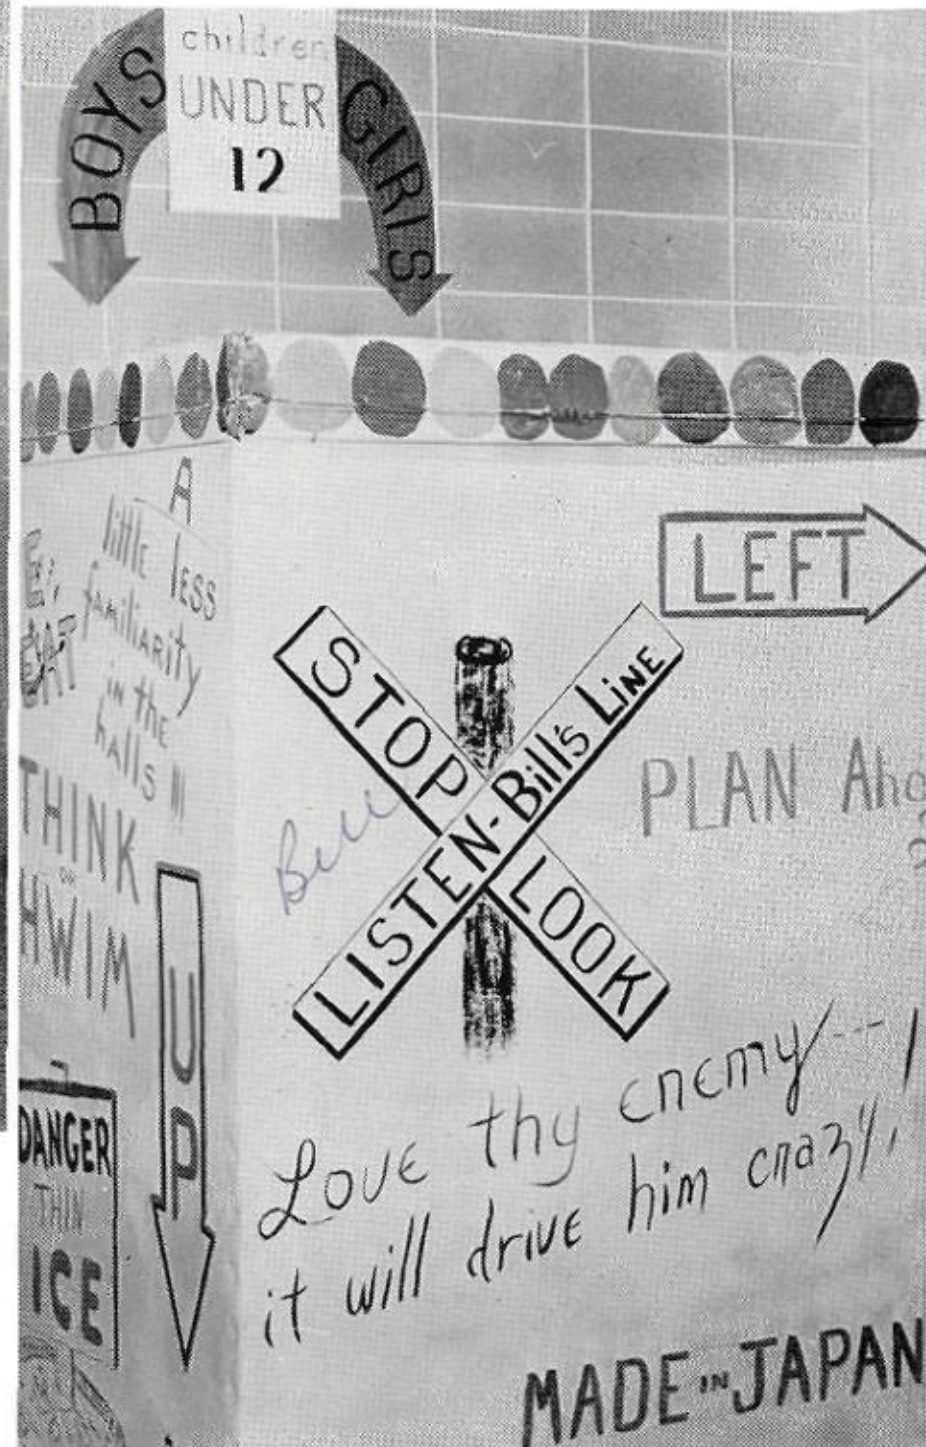

Batter David Buck goes down swinging as umpire Paul McConnell calls strike threeGGBL . . .!

Originality of Posters

A totem pole plus a voting poll equals a votempoll which equals a first place for Pam Harker and Gary Shaw in the free standing poster contest.

A main attraction in the halls was this eye-catcher of Bill Ashby's. Bill's unusual box received third place.

Because of the superior quality of the posters displayed by Paul McConnell and Patti Lohman, special recognition was given to Paul McConnell who designed all of the posters.

Winning first place for posters was this tall Texan demanding votes for Julie Avery and Johnny Burks.

Roping in votes for Cathy Lambert and Terry George is this poster. It was awarded third place in the poster division.

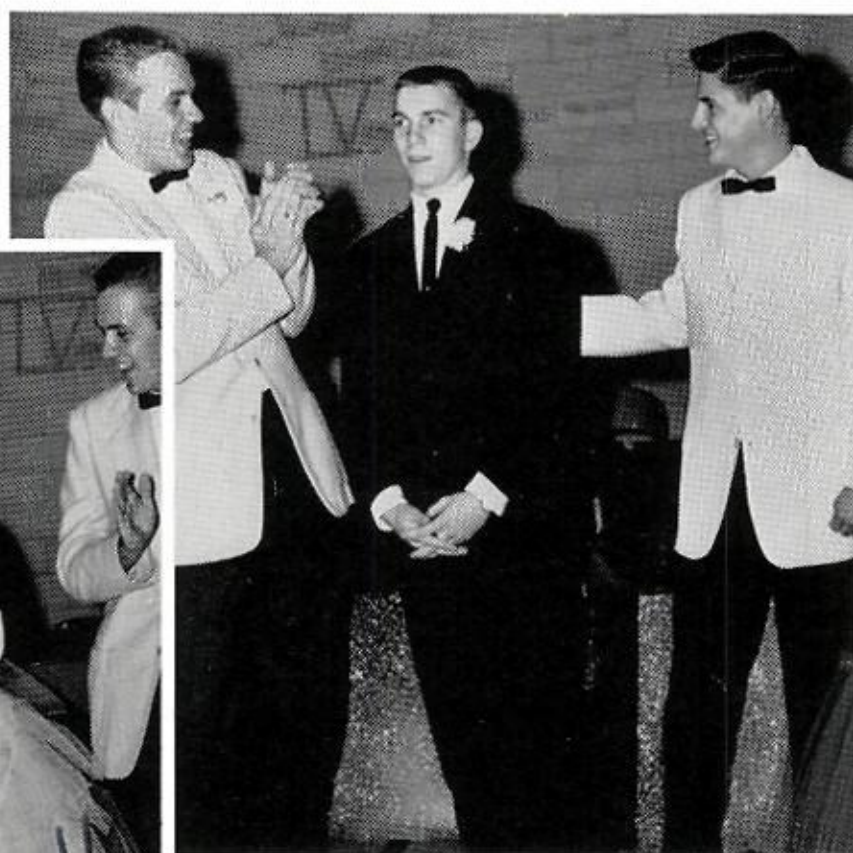

Winners Express Relief of Tension

Anne Thomas portrays a picture of delight when her name is called as Senior Girl favorite. Susan Parks, another nominee, displays fine sportsmanship as she shows her pleasure at Anne's honor.

Susan Rowlett's familiar smile sparkles forth as she learns to her delight that the DHS student body has elected her friendliest. Linda Henderson and Gale Reeves, the other two nominees, stand by her side a little forlorn, but happy that the moment has finally arrived.

"Who, me?" Terry George realizes to his amazement that he has been selected friendliest boy. Steve Fromholz and Jimmie Grandey his opponents heartily congratulate him as they try to convince Terry that he has really won.

Hearts and Flowers Provide Valentine Theme

Penny Campbell, too surprised and too happy for words, receives lovely red roses from Anne Thomas. Penny, who made a very beautiful Valentine Queen, is crowned by her escort, Steve Fromholz.

Suzanne Peters and Gary Richardson exchange small talk during a lull in the music-making.

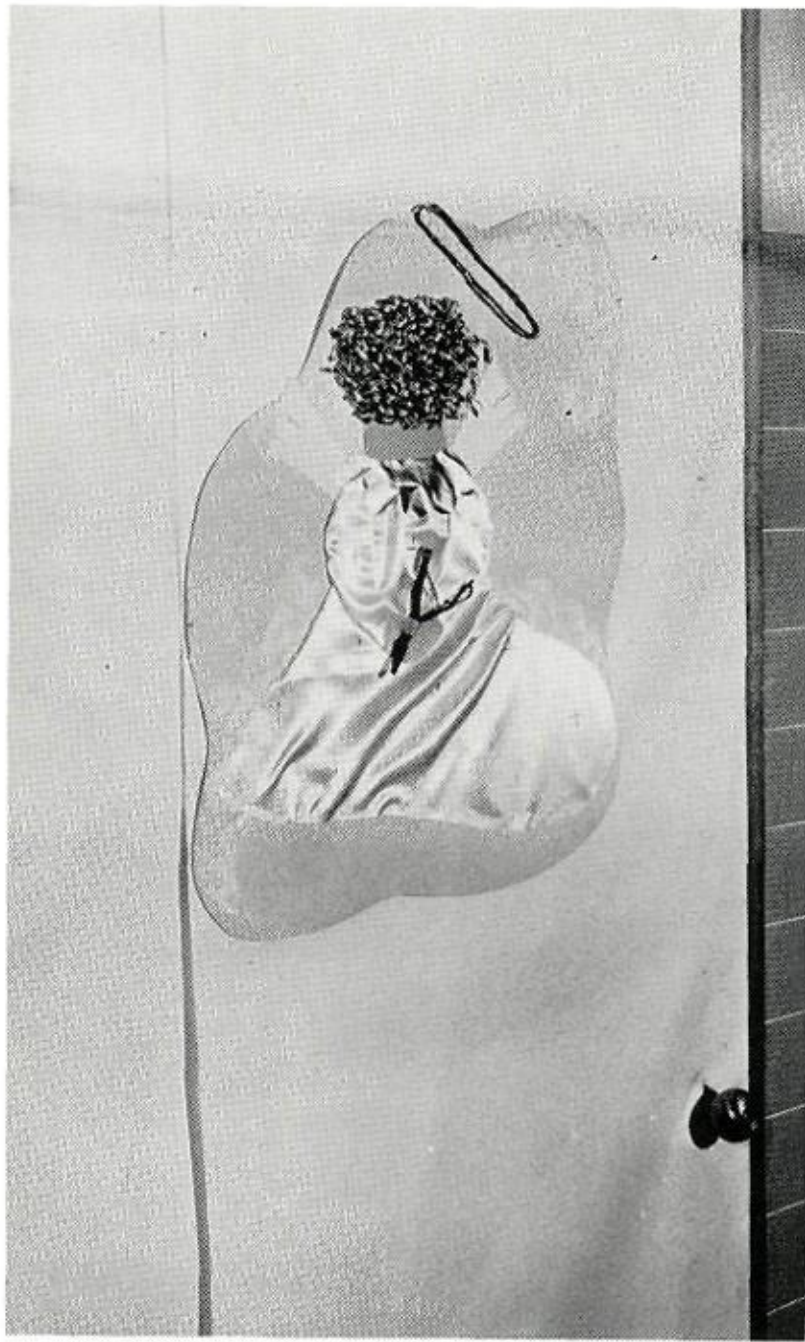

Cindy Shaw and Glenn Brookshear enjoy a fast dance played by the Aces of Collegeland, who provided a variety of music for the occasion.

DHS Valentine Queen for 1963, Penny Campbell, and her escort Steve Fromholz are pictured here on the Valentine throne. The coronation climaxed the evening's festivities.

Christmas Spirit Is Conveyed

Slave Sale Assembles Brilliant

Slave Robbie Buntyn dons a mask and mounts her horse to fulfill her obligations as a slave.

Linda McEuin placidly awaits her turn to mount the auction block to be sold. However, Nick Kiger nervously imagines the horrors which will soon confront him when he is finally sold.

Marilyn Woods industriously scrubs the cafeteria floor to prove her worthiness as a slave. New Latin Club members were required to perform various duties before being auctioned off to old members.

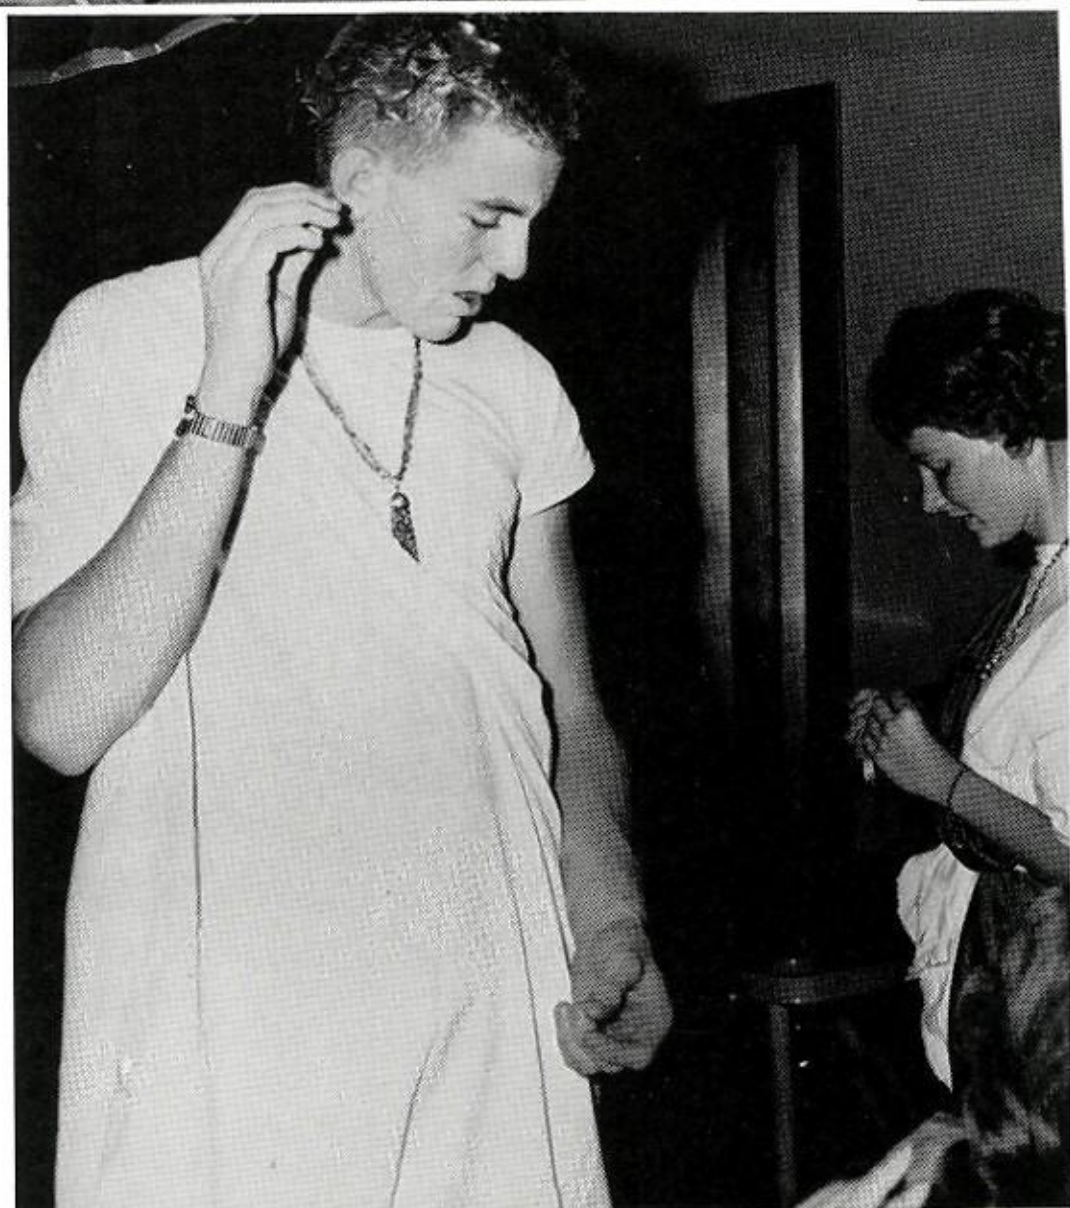

Carol Hulsey critically examines Nancy Merritt's golf posture. Meanwhile, Nancy is having a difficult time trying to remember the seriousness of the occasion.

Collection of Original Costumes

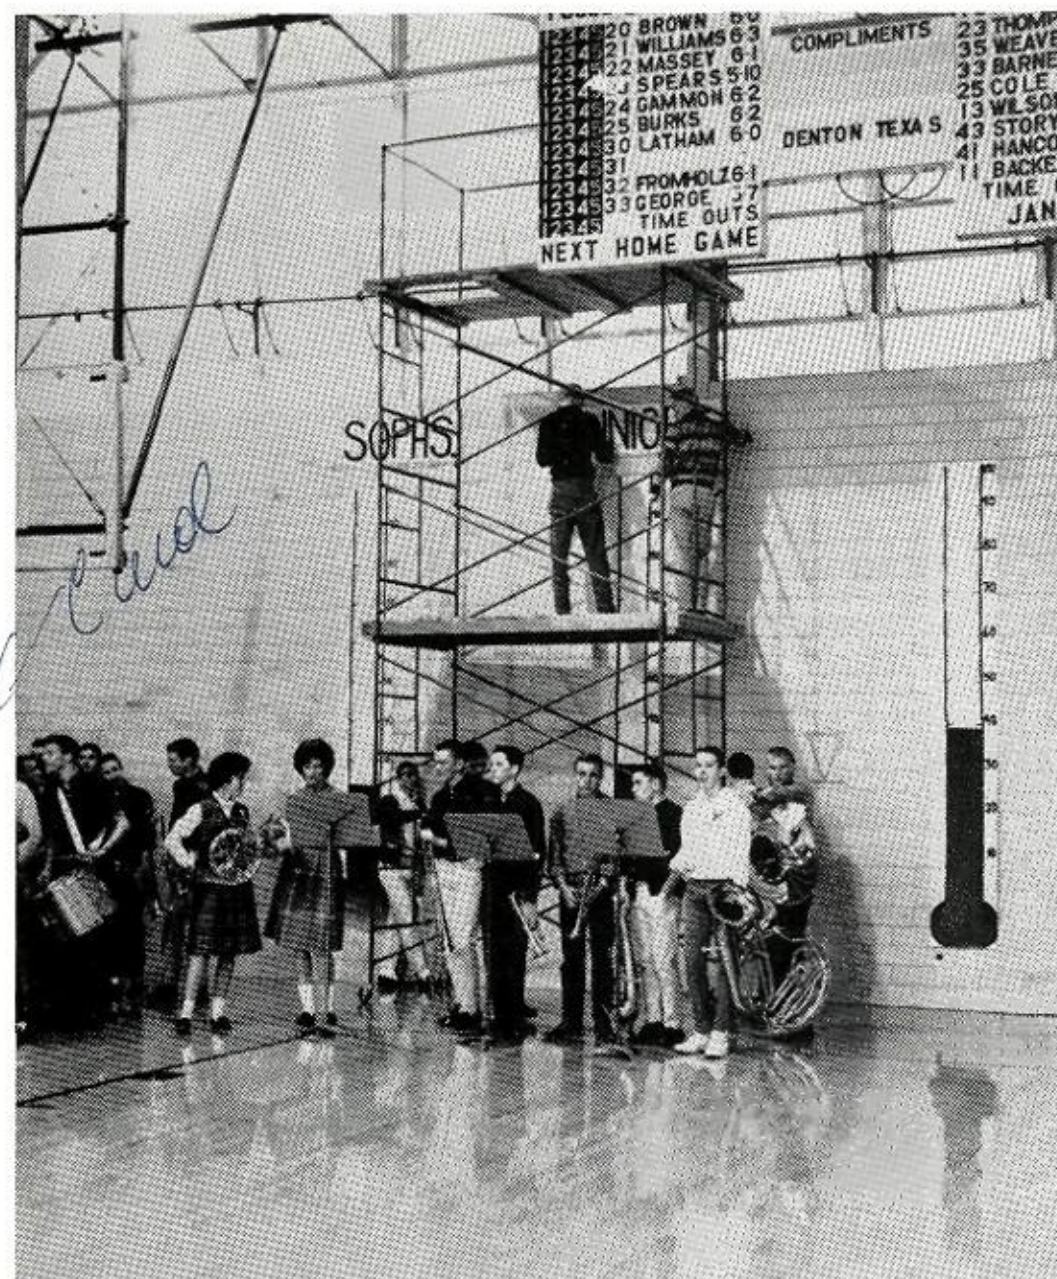

Jane Newcomer and Cynthia Hayes are not idle on the sidelines after being sold at the slave auction. Grade school type games were organized for the newly indentured slaves to participate in during the party.

One of the most authentic costumes at slave sale was worn by Mandy Allen. Mandy proved to be more willing than the average slave when she unhesitatingly obeyed her master's order to jump rope.

Ed Frady, one of the few boys dressed in slave costume, pays for the servants he purchased at the auction. Pat Jefferson reluctantly fastens her slave bracelet to her wrist. Due to the efforts of the members and officers, the slave sale provided fun and entertainment for everyone and was highly successful.

John the "yellowjacket" Porter portrays a member of one of Denton's rival teams, Denison, as he is swatted by the Denton High cheerleaders.

Contributors of awakening noises to the early morning are band members who prepare for their first lively number at the pep rally.

Promoting spirit for the night's game, cheerleaders Becky Clearman and Sara Hyder lead members of the sophomore and junior classes in the victory yell.

nd Assemblies Arouse Interest and Enthusiasm

Mr. Lowell Little, at the request of Mr. McMath, consented to appear with his TWU Serenaders at a Denton High assembly. The girl's stage band received a standing ovation by appreciative students.

The student body unites as one during the Christmas assembly in pledging allegiance to the flag. The combined choir classes presented a program of music to highlight the Christmas season.

Publication Staffs Capture Top Honors

Staff members from the Bronco and Horseshoe publications attended a journalism workshop at Texas A&M this summer. Denton received more awards than any school that participated.

Susie Lawler, editor-in-chief of the Bronco, was awarded the highest honor of any of the attending students. Susie was crowned "Miss Summertime" sweetheart of the yearbook section.

Denton High students who attended the workshop were Nancy Buntyn, associate Bronco editor; Pat Cochran, head photographer; Jerry Dewbre, editor of the Horseshoe; Bobb Granstaff, copy writer; Martha Griffin, copy writer; Susan Nix, advertising editor; and Susie Lawler, editor of the Bronco. Also attending was Julie Ramey, last year's Bronco editor, who was named associate editor on the Summertime workshop annual.

Mrs. Joe Sherrill, sponsor of the Bronco, was asked to be the sponsor of the Summertime yearbook. Pat Cochran was named best all-around photographer for the second year in row. Susan Nix won first place in advertising layout, and Nancy Buntyn won third place in double-page layout. Also, Jerry Dewbre was appointed to the Sweatshopper staff, a mimeographed paper.

This was the third time Denton had participated at the workshop and it was, by far, the best.

Spanish Party Piñatas Capture Spirit of Old Mexico

The Spanish Club party provided fun and excitement for all. With smiling expressions, Mrs. Gardner, sponsor, and Spanish students watch Jan Barlow secure the first piece of candy from the colorful piñatas.

Penny Campbell and George Christian wish Jan Barlow good luck as she is given the "breaking stick."

Tom Turner takes a blind swing at the gaily decorated swan piñatas as Ginger Amos and Penny Campbell look on with anticipation.

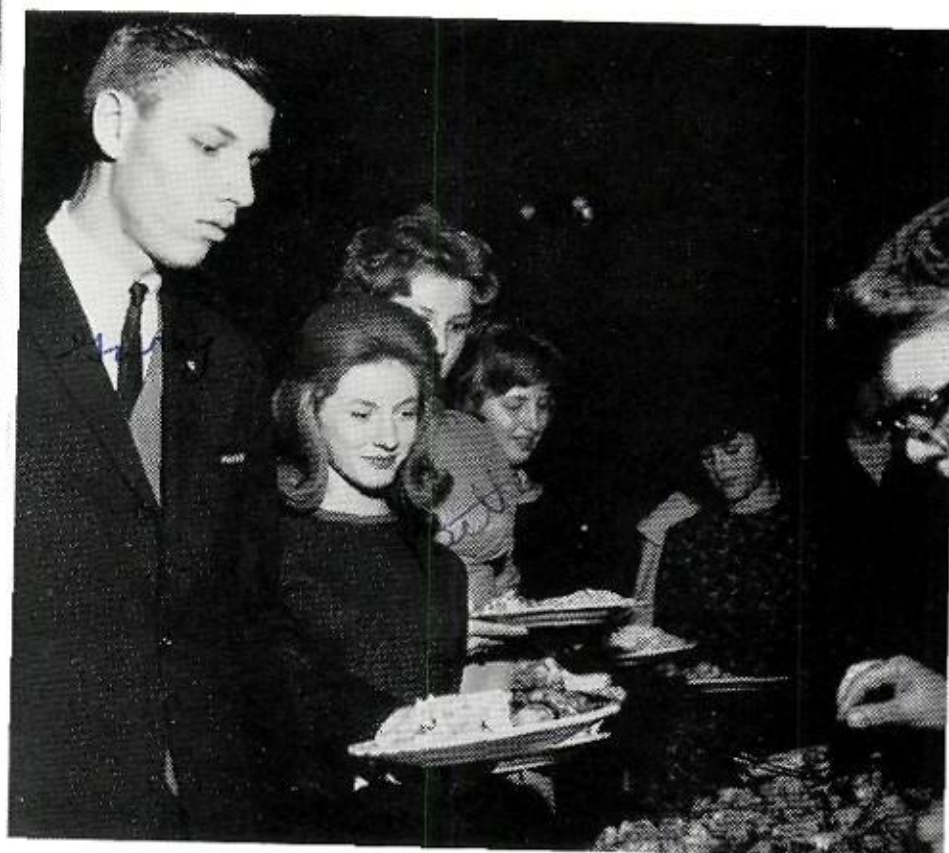

Spanish students Becky Ellis, Tom Turner, Cindy Shaw, and Paul McConnell take time out from the excitement of the activities to sample American refreshments.

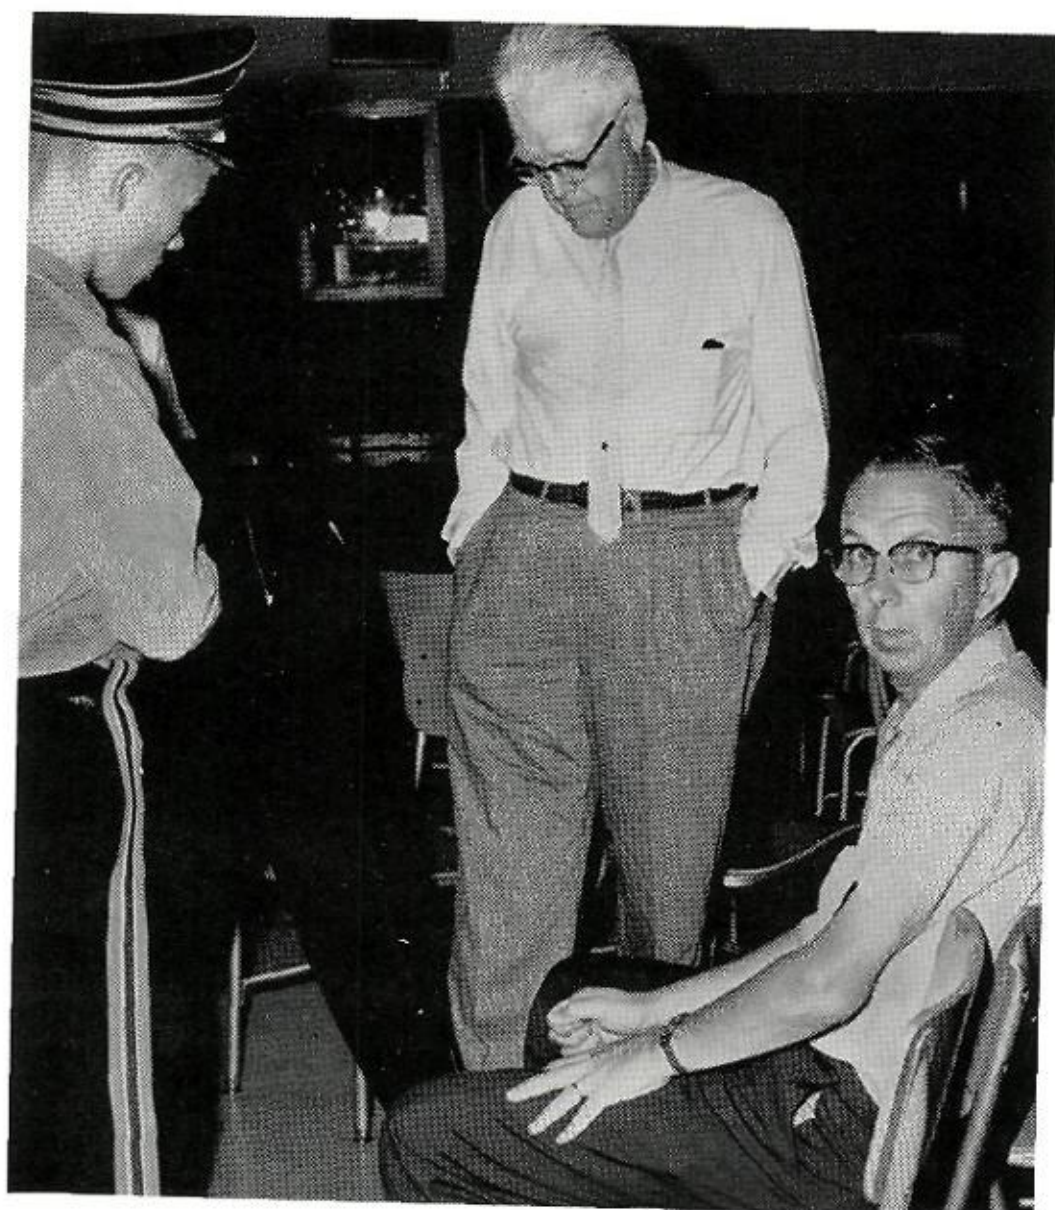

Band's Activities Are Backed

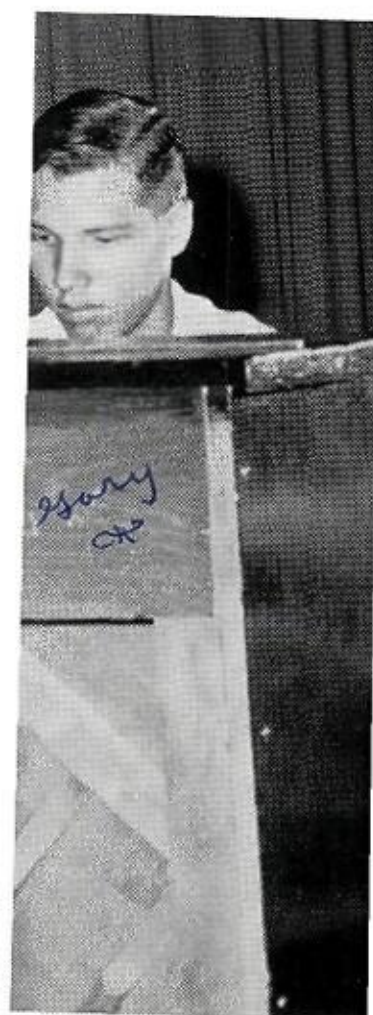

Gary Massey, Susan Parks, Betty Pitt, Joan Barnett, and Rosca Atkins mentally total up the calories in the delectable foods served at the band banquet.

Bill Ashby and Juliet Pilgrim pour over the latest edition of horoscopes while Pat McFerrin gazes into the unknown future.

Consultation and exasperation go into the distribution of the band uniforms for the 62-63 season. Here Mr. McMath and Joe Pender aid in the choosing of a uniform for Roy Pender.

by Musical Emphasis

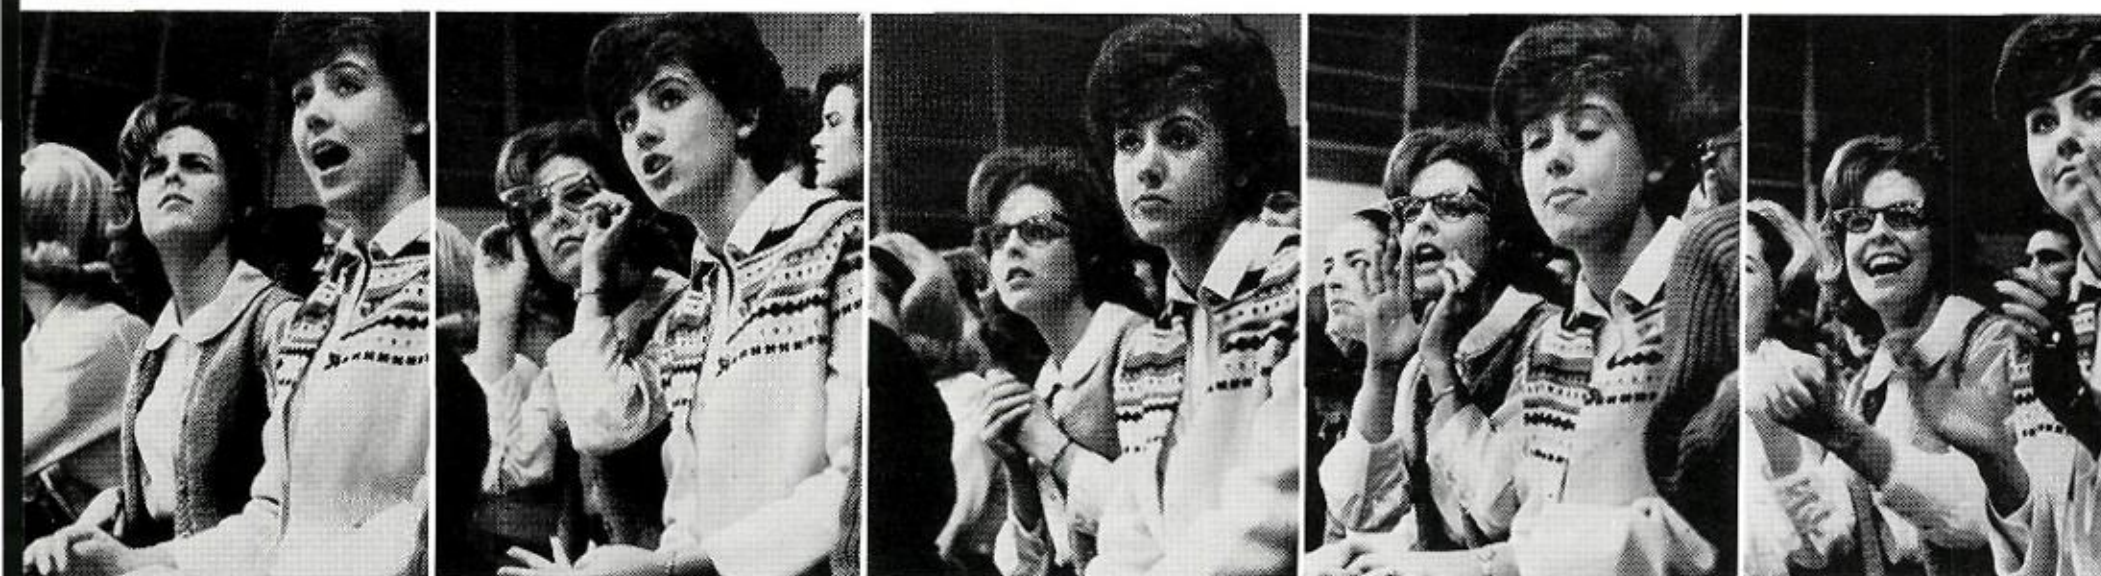

As Jimmy Nance and Terry Hutchison paw through a pile of assorted gloves, Joe Meister, who has already conquered the gloves, chats with Mrs. Selby and Mrs. Yarbrough.

The Silver Seven polishes off another practice session in preparation for the talent assembly. The boys are Gary Massey, Glenn Brookshear, David Caldwell, Chris Brown, and David Breeden.

Eager Crowds and Capable Broncos Led D.H.S. to Bi-district

Polly Broday and Geri Pooler painfully check the scoreboard—home—16, visitors—16.

One more careful check on Polly's part, but Geri sees a chance for the Broncos.

"They've got to make it!"

"Come on, Broncos."

"Yea—they made it. The Broncos have a chance."

The exciting minutes before the bi-district game between Denton and Texarkana begin as Texarkana students rise for their alma mater. Denton cheerleaders are on the floor ready to lead DHS students in the first victory yell that sent the Broncos on their way to the bi-district title.

Faculty Honored at Traditional Breakfast

Mrs. Yarbrough and Mrs. Hineman pause to obtain their morning coffee before being seated at the faculty breakfast.

Alert and bright eyed, Mrs. Burlage and Mrs. Gardner discuss the oncoming exams while Ginger Amos refills their coffee cups.

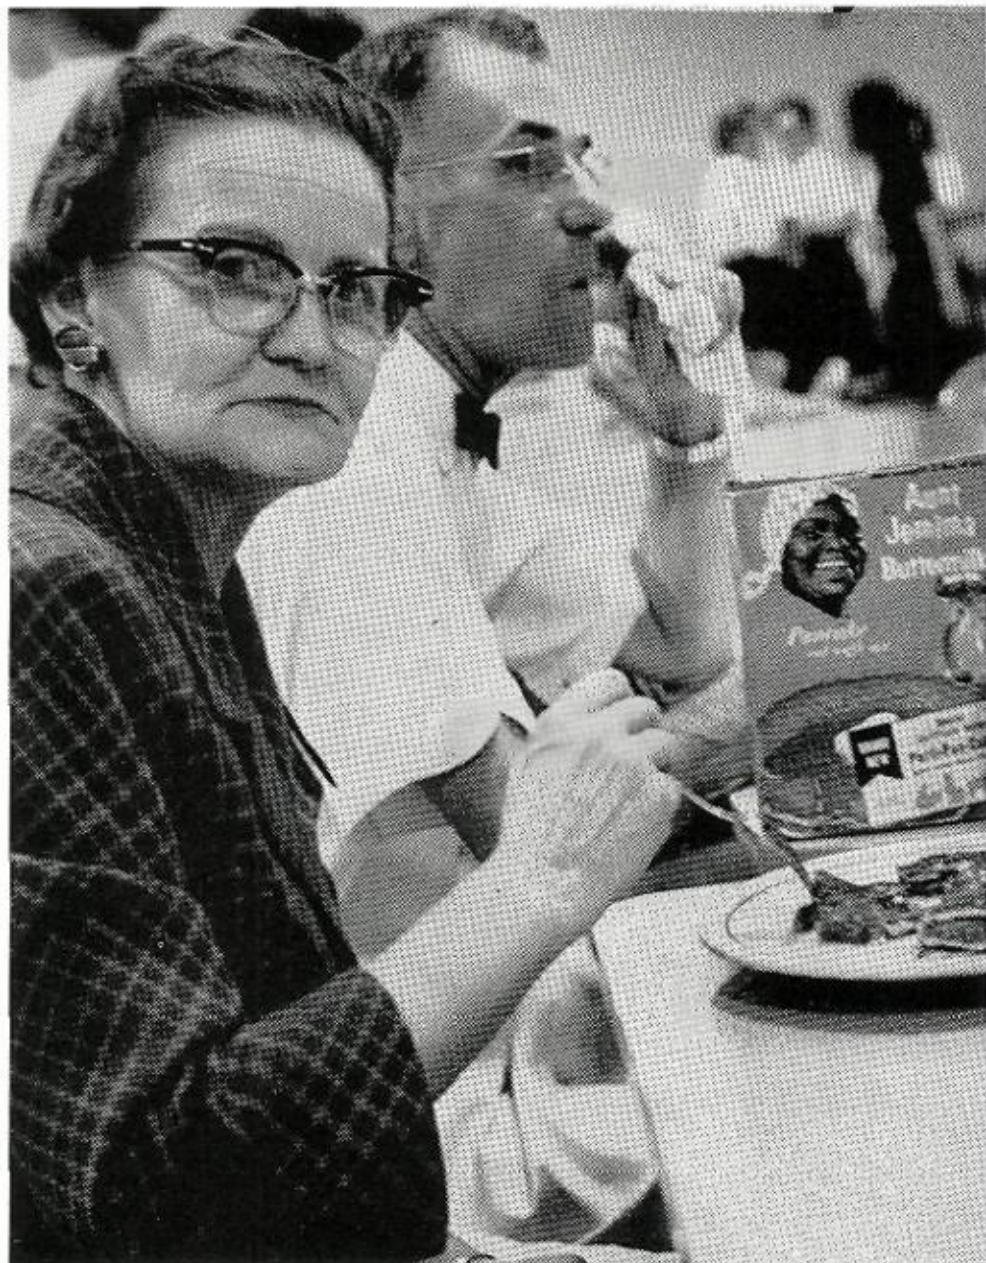

The attention of the faculty is caught by the lilting Latin tune sung by the Co-Eds at the traditional breakfast sponsored by the Student Council.

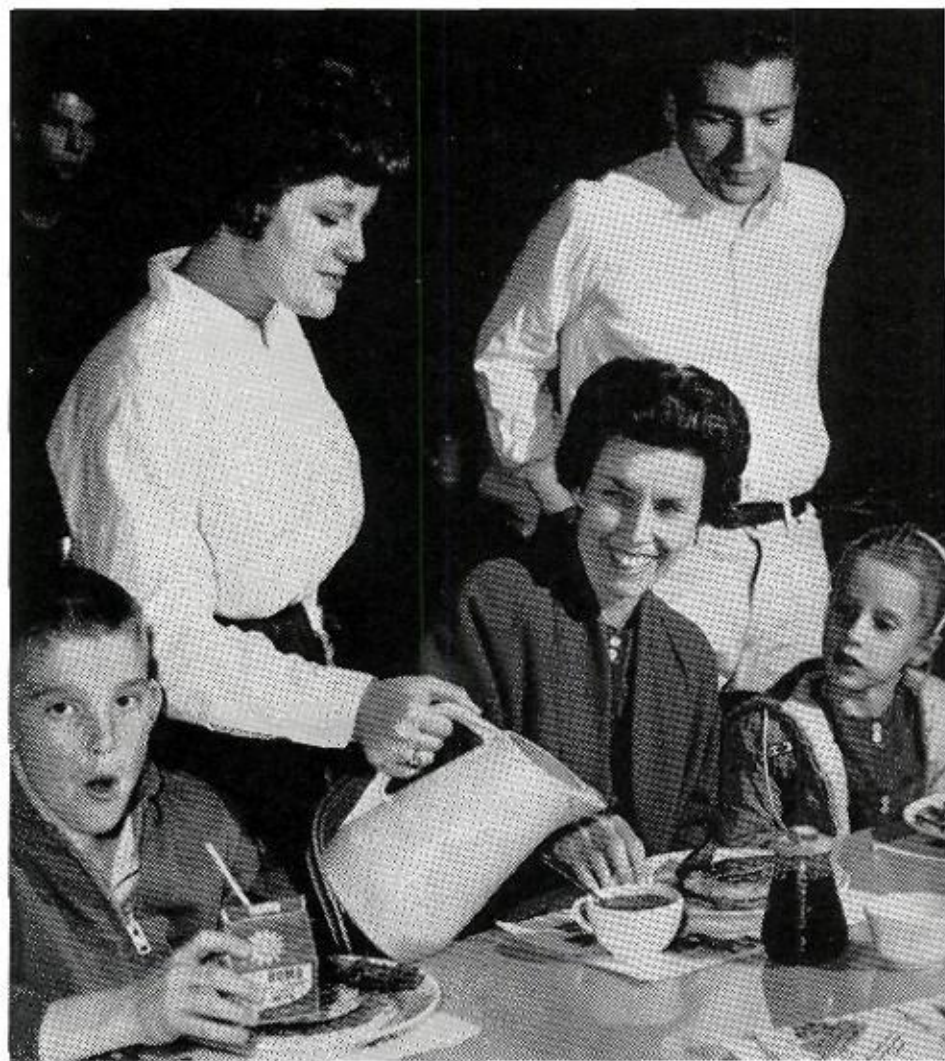

Since their hands are full, Mr. Burns, Mr. Hyman, and Mr. Wilder appreciate Pam Harker's help in serving coffee.

Seniors and Work and Fun

Pausing from her duties as permanent chairman of the Pancake Supper, Mrs. Hutchison joins her husband as they enjoy pancakes prepared by willing parents and students.

Although she really finds pancakes a delicious supper, Mrs. J. C. Lowrey isn't smiling because she and her family are enjoying their meal. Mrs. Lowrey is thinking of the dishwashing she will miss after the meal.

Hungry pancake fans patiently wait for their turn to be served. Because of the support given the supper, senior class members will enjoy various class activities at the end of the year.

Parents Share in of Pancake Supper

Susie Lawler and Sharon Guyer take time from their position as senior workers to test this year's pancakes. Judging from their intentness, the pancakes must have passed their test.

Susan Rowlett and Diana Guinn eagerly wait to clear away the table for Juliet Pilgrim and Jannine Sams. Susan and Diane are eager because they just found out that as soon as Juliet and Jannine finish eating, they will take over their positions on the clean-up committee.

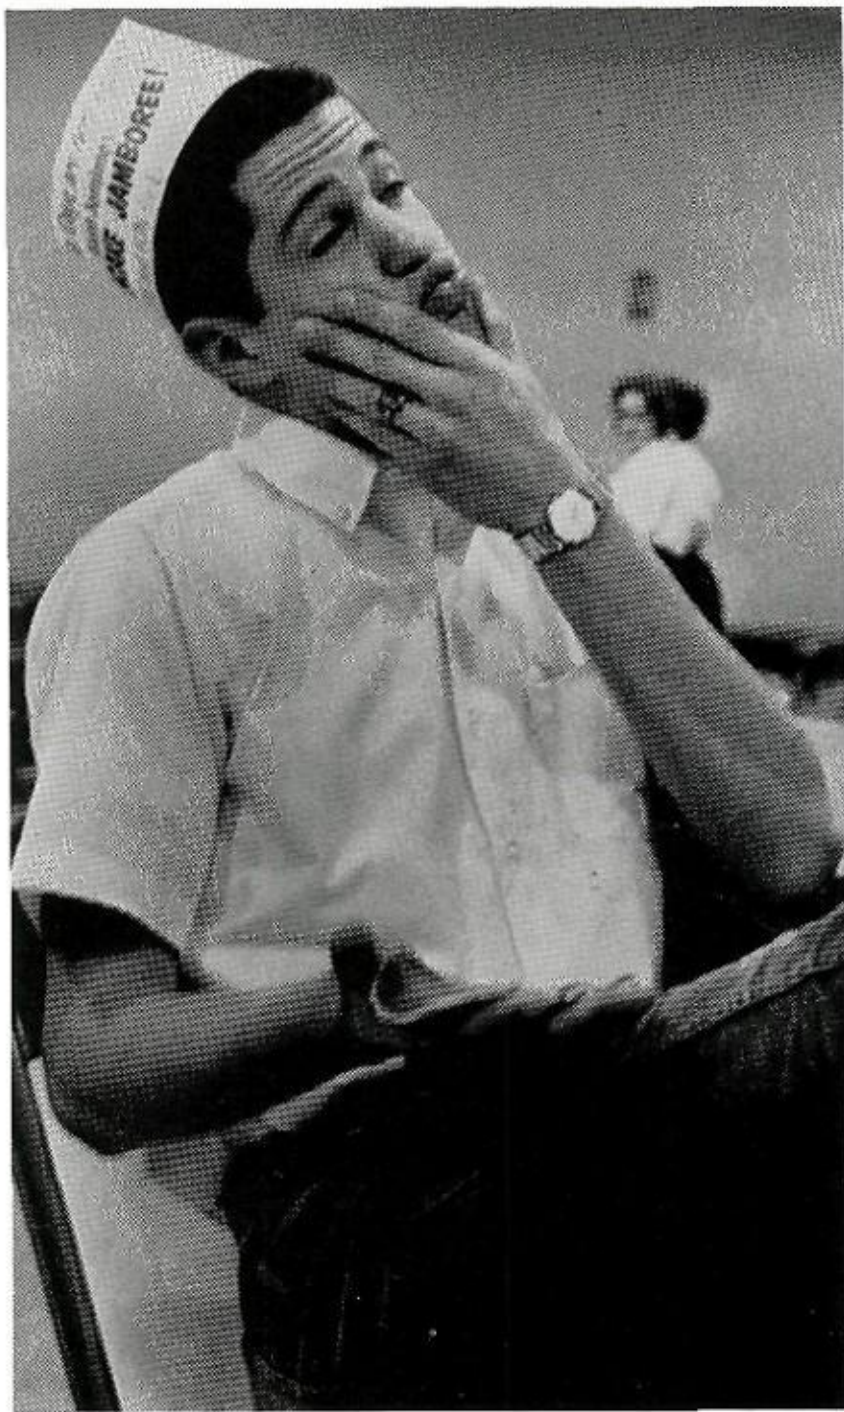

Hard-working seniors like John Savage made it possible for the lines to move quickly and tables to be cleared for the next hungry crowds.

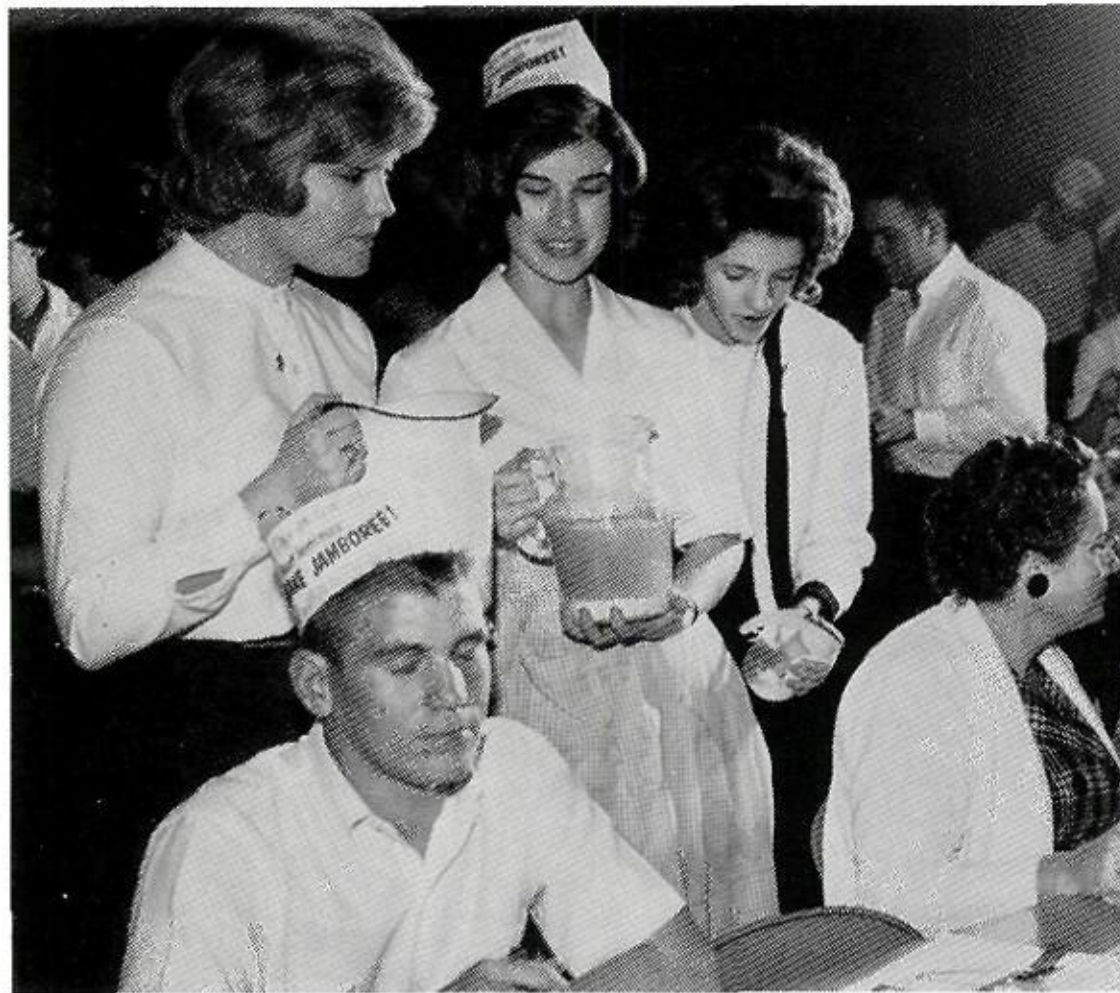

The disheartening news has just reached parent workers, Mrs. Kendrick, Mrs. Johnson, and Mrs. Granstaff; that there are only 500 more hungry people to be served.

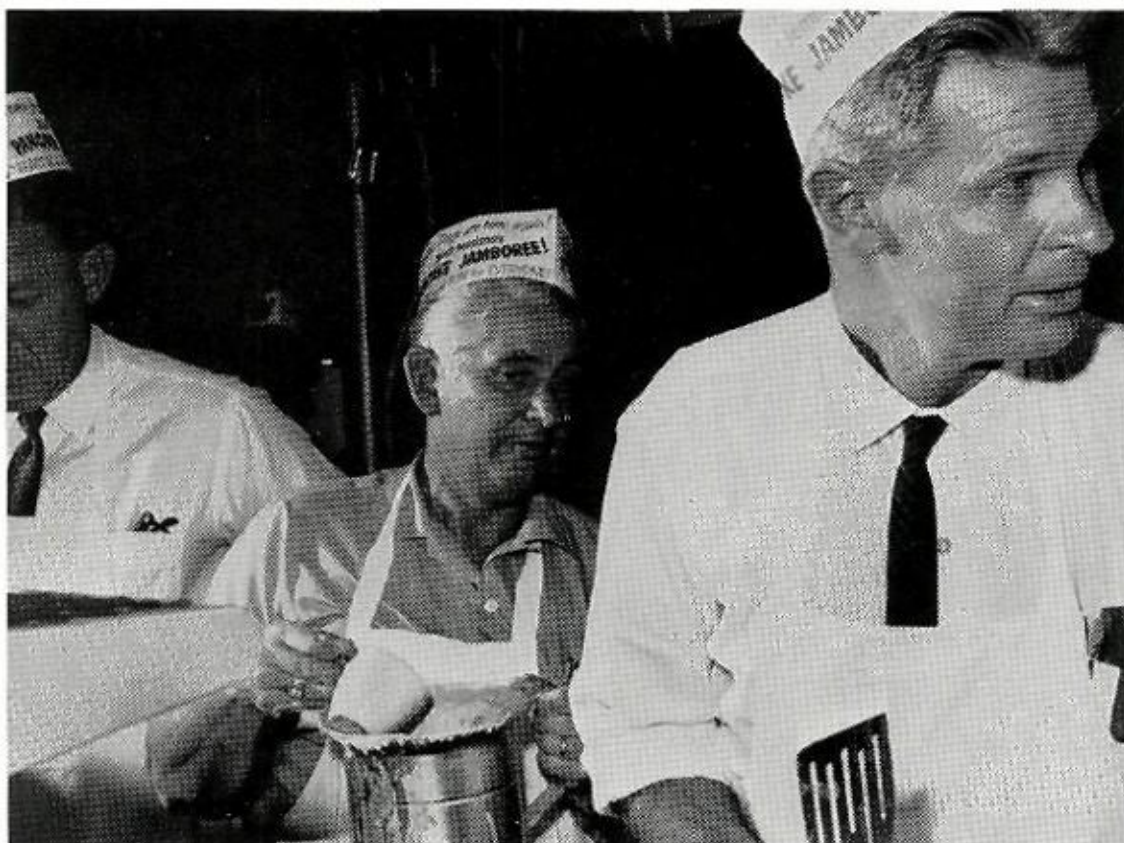

Pancake Supper Gives Seniors Satisfaction

John "Hamlet" Porter meditates on the timeless question, "To throw or not to throw."

John Peel is the unsuspecting victim of Carol Payne, Sarah Drake, and Marie Russell who are preparing to test the durability of John's pancake hat by filling it with coffee, melted butter, and syrup, respectively.

Mr. Lawler furtively looks around for either a sink or an empty griddle—in that order—in which to pour his batter, while Mr. Guyer seems to be wondering what happened to the pancake he "flipped" five minutes earlier.

Barbara Mase looks as if she is already accustomed to cleaning up after her "little brother."

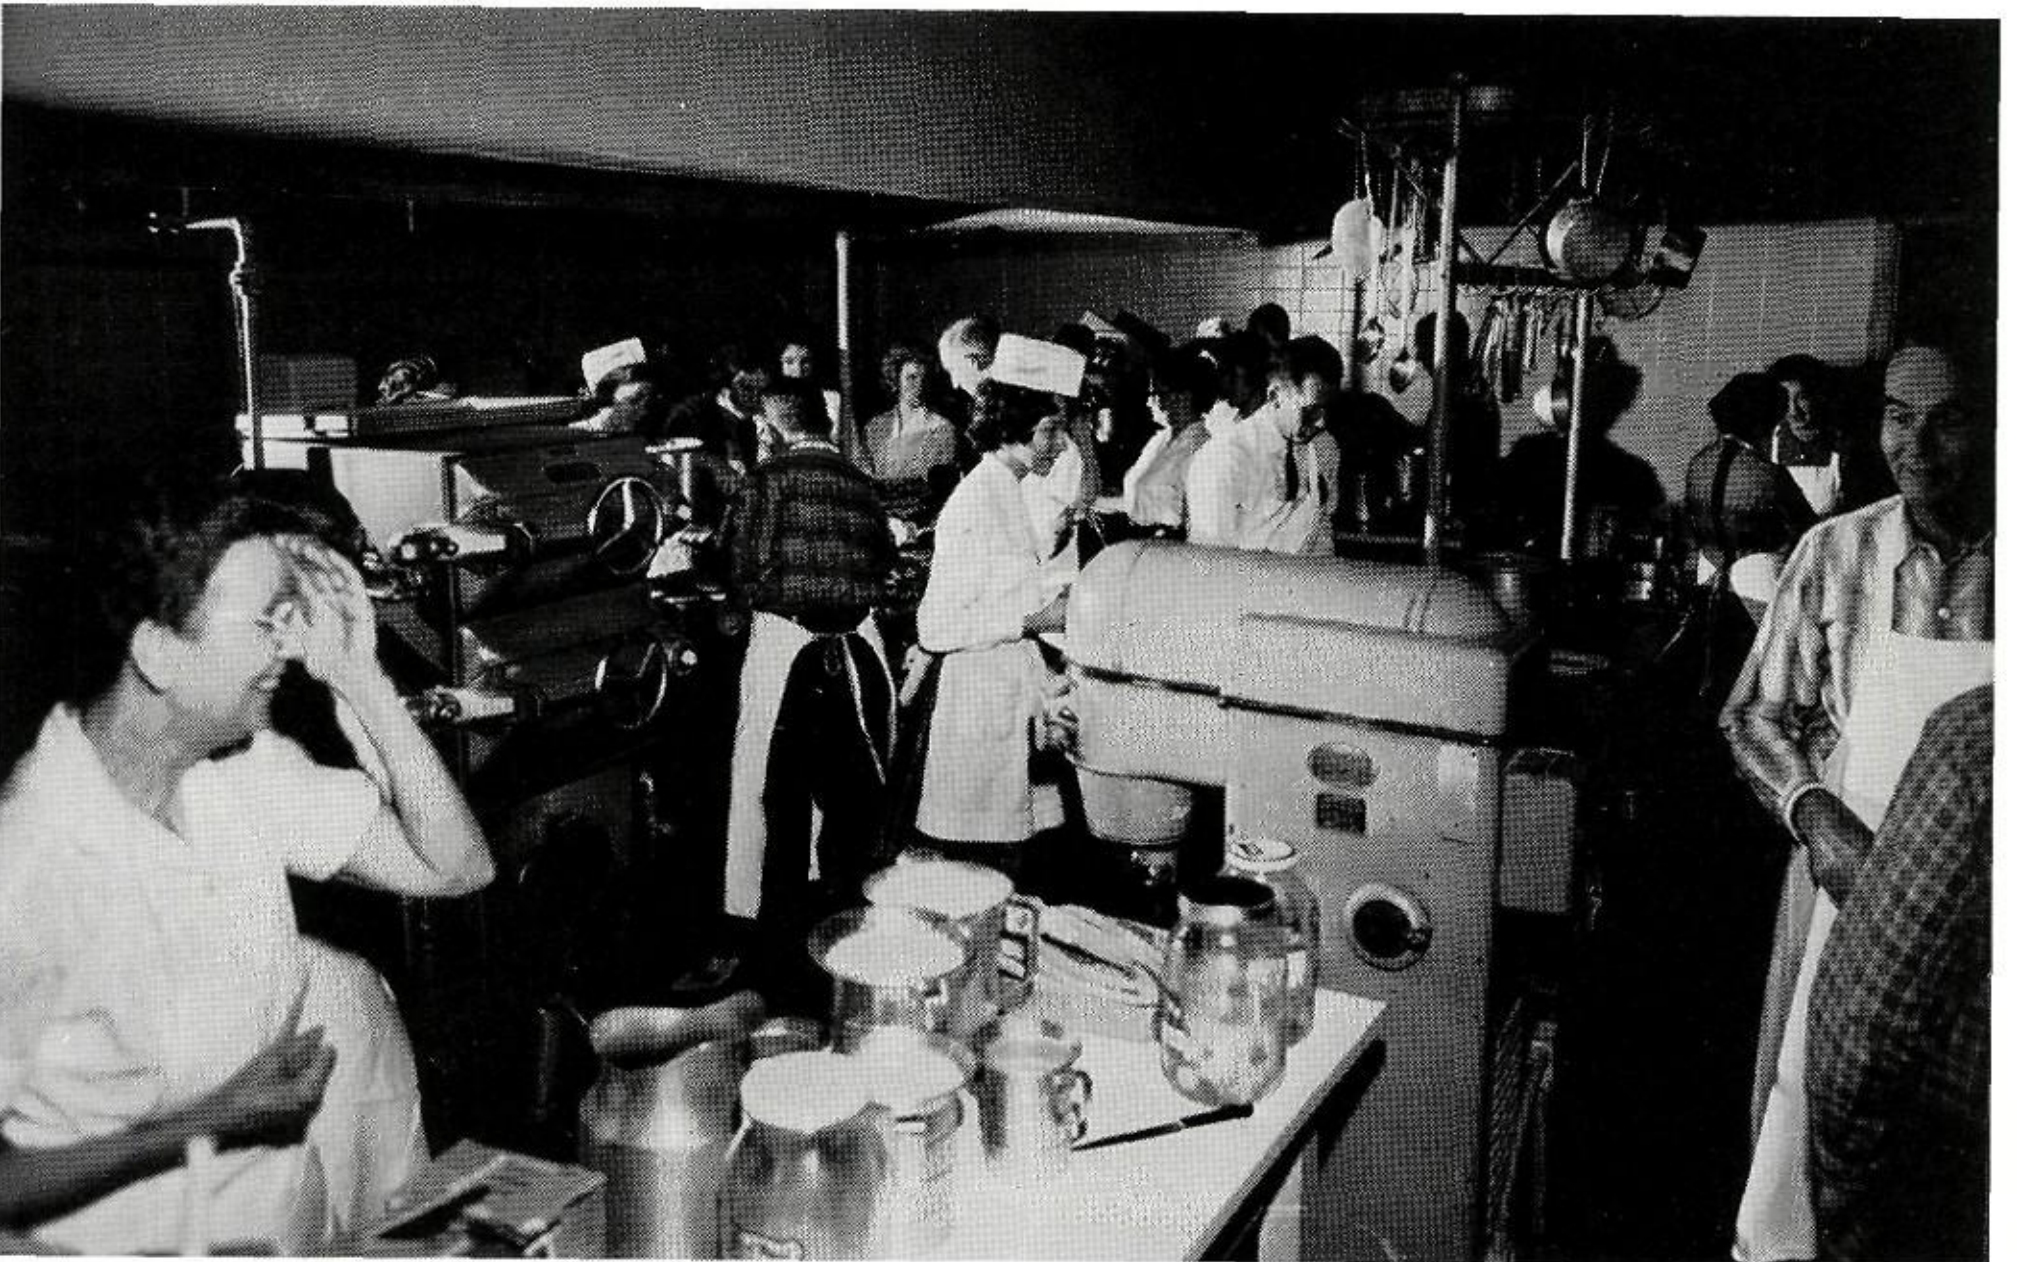

of Earning Money for Spring Activities

Guin Bender and Mrs. Drake courteously encourage pancake supper customers to have "just one more pancake."

Refilling empty coffee cups was only one of the duties of Helen Littleton at the pancake supper.

Head cook, Mrs. Jacobs, laughingly wonders if it will ever be over. Even after the last customer left, there was still work to be done.

Helpers Are Vital Part of Office Activity

Office helpers perform many necessary duties throughout the year. They keep track of absentee reports, operate the switchboard, and many other vital jobs. They have added the personal touch to their work of always being willing and anxious to help anybody who comes into the office.

Hard Work Equals Sonora and Fun

The speech students gathered at the high school bright and early Thursday morning, February 28th, to make the annual trip to the Sonora Speech Tournament.

The Sonora Speech Tournament proved to be very profitable for the Denton Speech Department this year. The Miracle Worker Denton's entry in the one-act play competition won first place. Denton also swept the debate fited with first place winners in both girls and boys division. In the individual events, Denton took eleven first places, four second places, and four third places.

Mrs. Hall and Jerry Knight, sponsors for the Sonora trip, take time out to pause for a picture before leaving for the speech tournament.

Anne Thomas, laughing as usual, finds Pam Harker's poetry interpretation amusing.

Sallie Reeves: At the sound of the tone, we will be approximately two hours late in leaving for Sonora.

Prize-Winning "One Act" Creates a Variety of Emotions

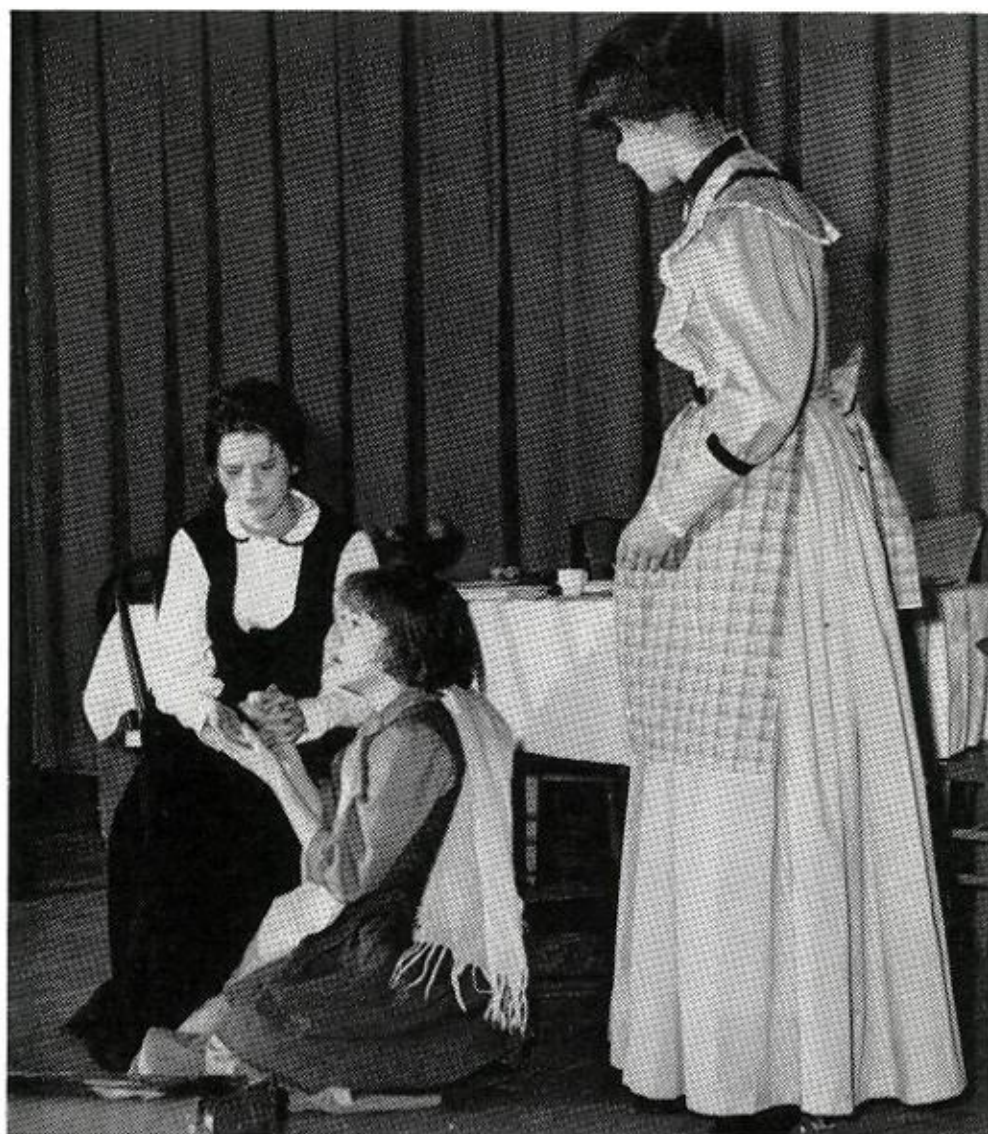

Upon her arrival to the Keller household, Miss Annie Sullivan, portrayed by Judy Wright, began teaching Helen to live a happy life without her eyes. In this scene Helen, played by Jan Barlow, eagerly feels Miss Sullivan's scarf.

Although Miss Sullivan is very pleased with Helen's reactions, Pete Hamilton, Helen's step-brother, questions his step-sister's progress. Sharyn Spuller, in the background, portrayed the family's housekeeper.

Realizing her blindness, Helen cries to her mother, Diana Witherspoon, because her doll has no eyes. Helen's father, Paul McConnell, and James, her step-brother, pay no attention to Helen's tantrum.

Mrs. Keller asks to be taught letters by Miss Sullivan so that she too may communicate with her daughter. Miss Sullivan finds her patience rewarding as Helen carries on a simple conversation.

Interested Students Enjoy Intramural Basketball

David Shephard (32) and Jon Ballard try desperately to tip the basketball to their respective teams during the intramural championship game. Bill Doss (30), Joe Specht (42), and Wayne Ferrell (34) looks on expectantly.

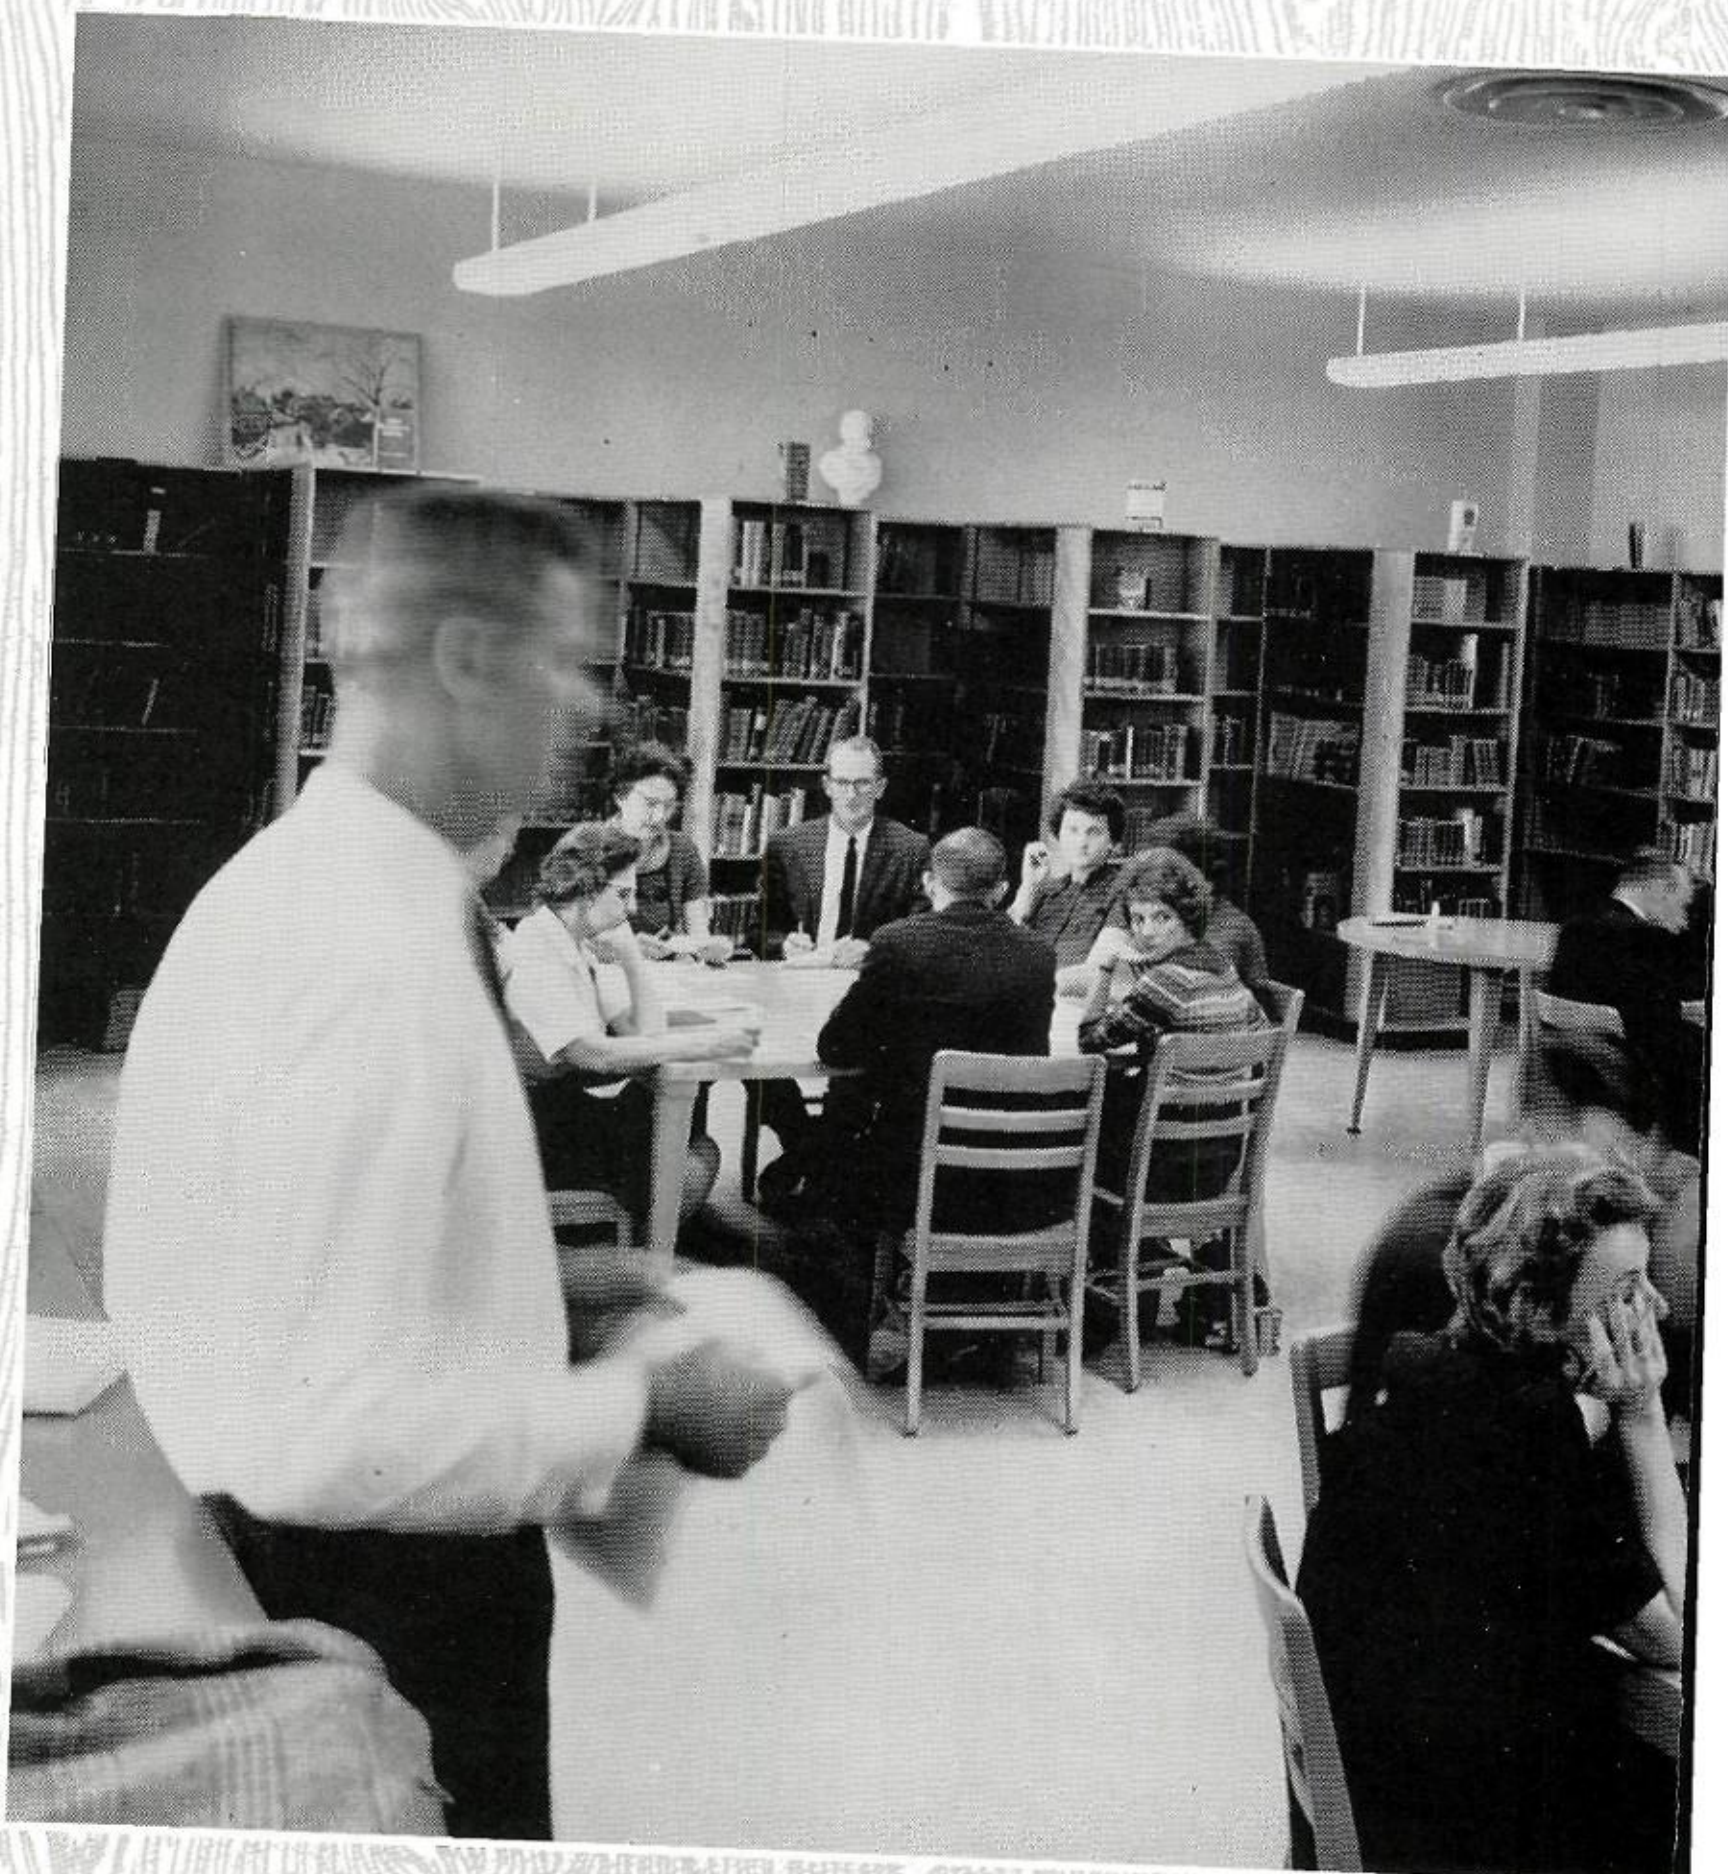

Joe Specht (42), Bobby Ray (11), Ray Wheeler (8), and David Caldwell all seem to be about ready to grab a rebound while Jon Ballard looks helplessly on.

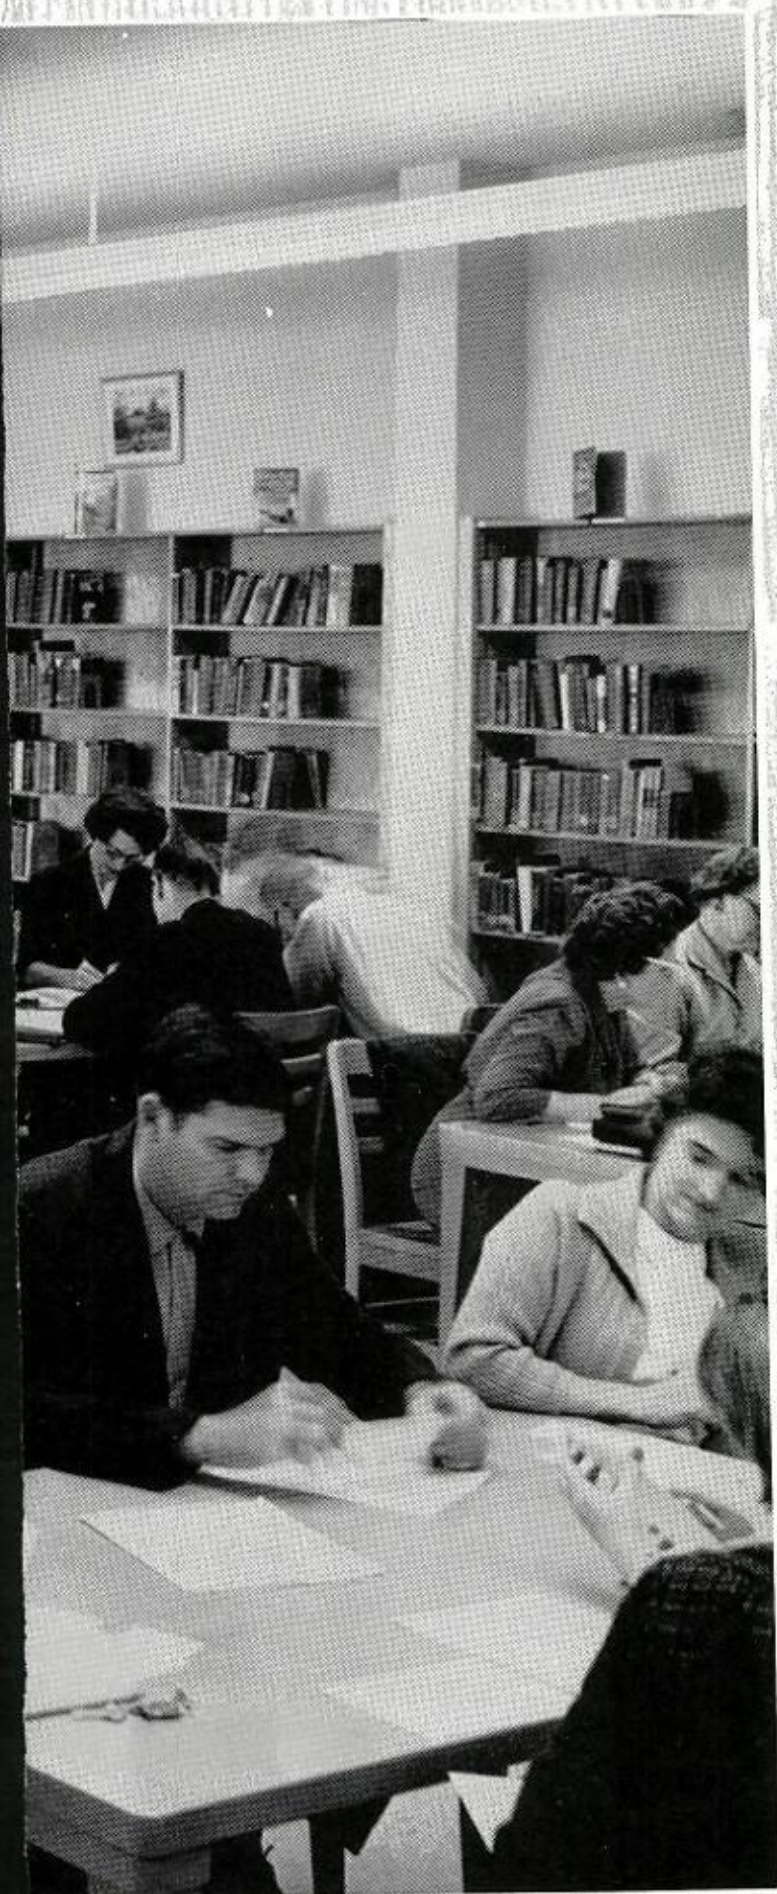

Jim Kirkpatrick (14) has just attempted to block a shot by Bill Doss in a play of the championship game.

The Hawks, comprised of Bill Doss, coach Terry Smith, Wayne Farrell, David Caldwell, Jon Ballard, Lewis Vaughn, Darrell Keith, Tommy Faught, and Ray Wheeler, were the winners of the 1963 Intramural Basketball Crown.

Bronco cheerleaders are as follows: Becky Clearman, junior; Sarah Hyder, sophomore; Judy Davis, sophomore; Linda Fulton, senior. Standing are Ruth Martin, senior, and Betty Brinkman, junior.

Two Denton High School students, Chris Brown and Eddie Ferguson, scored high enough on the National Merit Scholarship Qualifying Test, which is taken in the spring by juniors who wish to compete in the program, to become semi-finalists in the nation-wide program. As a result of their outstanding scores, these two became a part of the top one per cent of all students who took the test. This could result in a scholarship from the National Merit Corporation.

NIZATIONS

Student Council Inform

The Student Council, composed of elected representatives from each advisory, plans and executes many activities that take place throughout the school year. The Howdy Party, Teacher Appreciation Week, and the Valentine Formal are only a few of the activities planned by the Student Council members and their sponsor, Mr. Frost. One of the major projects for this year was raising the money and obtaining a suitable home for a foreign exchange student. The idea of a foreign exchange student, a completely new aspect for the students at Denton High, was possible because of the well-laid plans that were presented to the student body by the Student Council officers. Attempting to revive school spirit, the Council purchased a victory flag that flies after Bronco wins in various sports. One of the most important duties of the Student Council members is to encourage school spirit and democratic procedures in all activities that take place in Denton High.

Dramatics Develop Acting Potential

Officers are as follows: Mrs. Hall, Judy Wright, reporter; Kay Parker, treasurer; Diana Witherspoon, secretary; Paul McConnell, vice-president; Jon Ballard, president.

The Dramatics Club completely lived up to their purpose of developing dramatic talent through classroom and stage work this year. This was shown by their production of two showcases of dramatic talent, which consisted of seven one-act plays each; and two full length plays. Besides the plays the members also worked on developing solo, duet, and trio acting skills. All of these accomplishments require some natural talent and many hours of diligent work.

"Resolved that the United States should promote a Common Market for the Western Hemisphere," was this year's Texas debate topic. This topic involved a great amount of research, not only on the Western Hemisphere, but also on the economic conditions of many countries of the world. Besides research, the debaters spent many long hours in practice debates to increase their skills in the presenting and proving their cases. By attending speech tournaments the Debate Club members receive many trophies for the time and effort that they have devoted to developing and organizing their debate cases.

The Debate Club assists the National Forensic Chapter in developing public speakers and helps foster formal argumentation on current national and international topics.

Learn of D.H.S. Activities

With the beginning of the new school year in September, 1962, the Horseshoe staff members embarked on a new journey: publishing a school newspaper on a bi-weekly basis and doing this by the comparatively new method of offset.

This was quite a step up from the mimeographed newspaper which was distributed last year. New methods, procedures, counts, deadlines, and formats were digested and discussed. Then the printing troubles descended in earnest.

Several issues, several dollars, and millions of words and long, hard hours later, the newspaper staff of eight regular journalism class members and six auxiliary reporters is still struggling with the cold facts of life for all journalists: how to sell newspapers!

The school newspaper endeavors to support all worthy campaigns and projects. It attempts to report all news fairly and without prejudice.

With outstretched arms, Bobby Houser (20) gets set to haul in a long pass during Denton's 28-8 victory over Birdville on September 14. Bobby's catch was hampered by a Haltom City Buffalo. However, Bobby did score one of the four touchdowns in the opening game victory.

Meanwhile, teammates provide the blocking as coaches, officials, and the entire Bronco bench watch the action intently. Gary Yates keeps an eye on "Victory," the mascot for both Denton football teams, during one of the season's contests. The shetland had a better effect on the "B" team than on the varsity squad. Coach Nix's crew finished with a 3-7 record.

30-4 Win-Loss Record

Coach Vern Lane, who has won five district championships in seven years of coaching, has helped to develop many great basketball players on many fine teams. He carried his team to the regional finals this year.

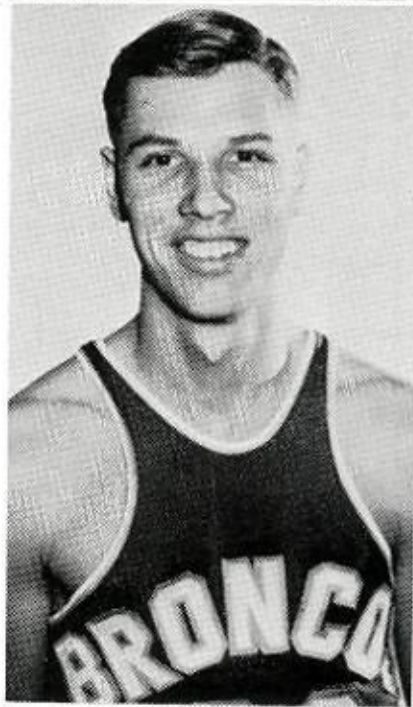

Steve Selby, manager, encountered the daily carrying of dirty basketball uniforms to the field house laundry and the assisting of the coach and team in any way possible.

Denton encountered the Sherman Bearcats in Bronco gym for the initial district home game of the season on January 4. Above, Jimmy Williams (21) guards a Bearcat who has apparently just taken a rebound. The Broncos had somewhat of an off night against Sherman but still managed to win 56-46 to bring their district record to 2-0.

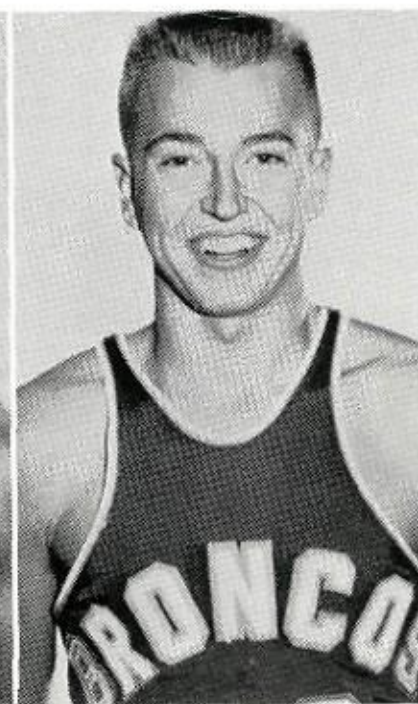

Gary Massey (22) gets off a shot against the Garland Owls on January 18. Broncos Johnny Burks (25), Bobby Brown (20), and Mike Gammon (24) watch the action. Denton trounced the Owls 68-56 to take their fifth district game without a loss.

On January 22 the Broncos took on in Bronco gym their sixth district opponent the always-tough Highland Park. Above, Mike Gammon (24), voted by the coaches as the most outstanding player in District 7-AAAA, and Jimmy Williams (21), a second-team all-district player, fight with a Scottie for the ball. Denton ripped their bitter rivals 74-50.

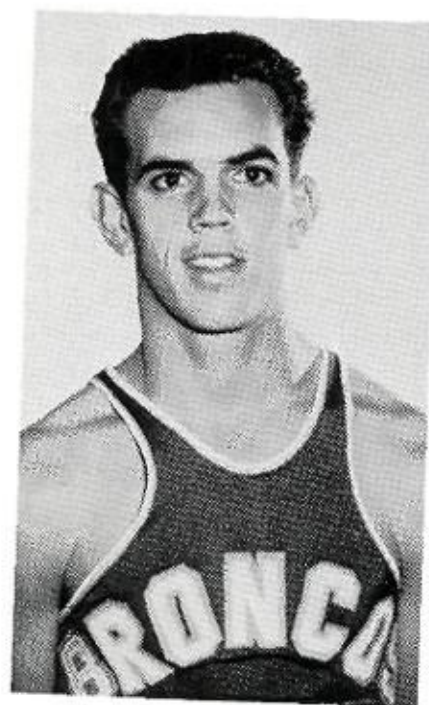

Victory number seven for the Broncos came in Bronco gym on January 29 when the Denton cagers crushed the lowly Mesquite Skeeters 98-18. Mesquite's only goal throughout the game was to prevent the Broncos from scoring 100 points. Right, Bobby Brown (20) shoots one of his amazingly accurate long shots as Mike Gammon (24), Johnny Burks (25), and Gary Massey (22) look on.

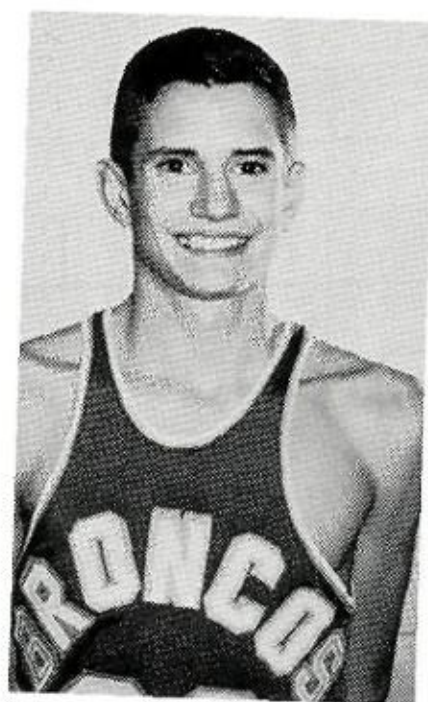

Broncos Have Successful Season

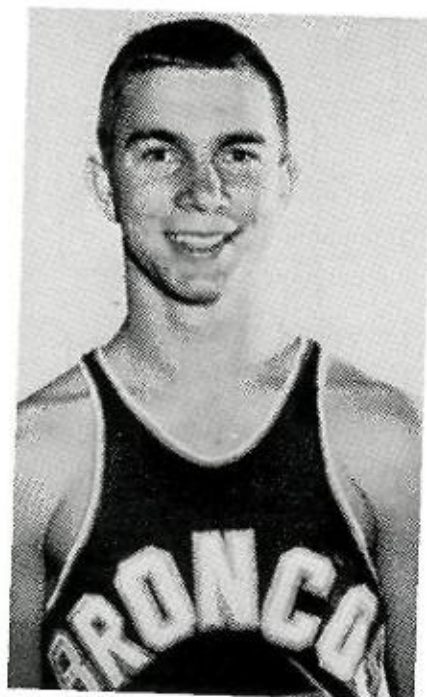

Steve Fromholz (32) scores two for the Broncos during the February 5th game with Richardson. While Jimmy Williams (21) aids in keeping some Eagles from interfering. Denton's 89-51 victory gave the team nine district wins without a loss.

The curtain opened on the February 12th game with the Owl's number 30 winning the tip from Denton over Jimmy Williams. Mike Gammon (24) and Johnny Burks (25) prepare to equalize the course of events by attempting to steal the ball from the Owls. Garland became another Bronco victory 66-48, and Denton finished its season a week later with a 68-62 over-time win against Highland Park. This gave them a perfect 12-0 district record.

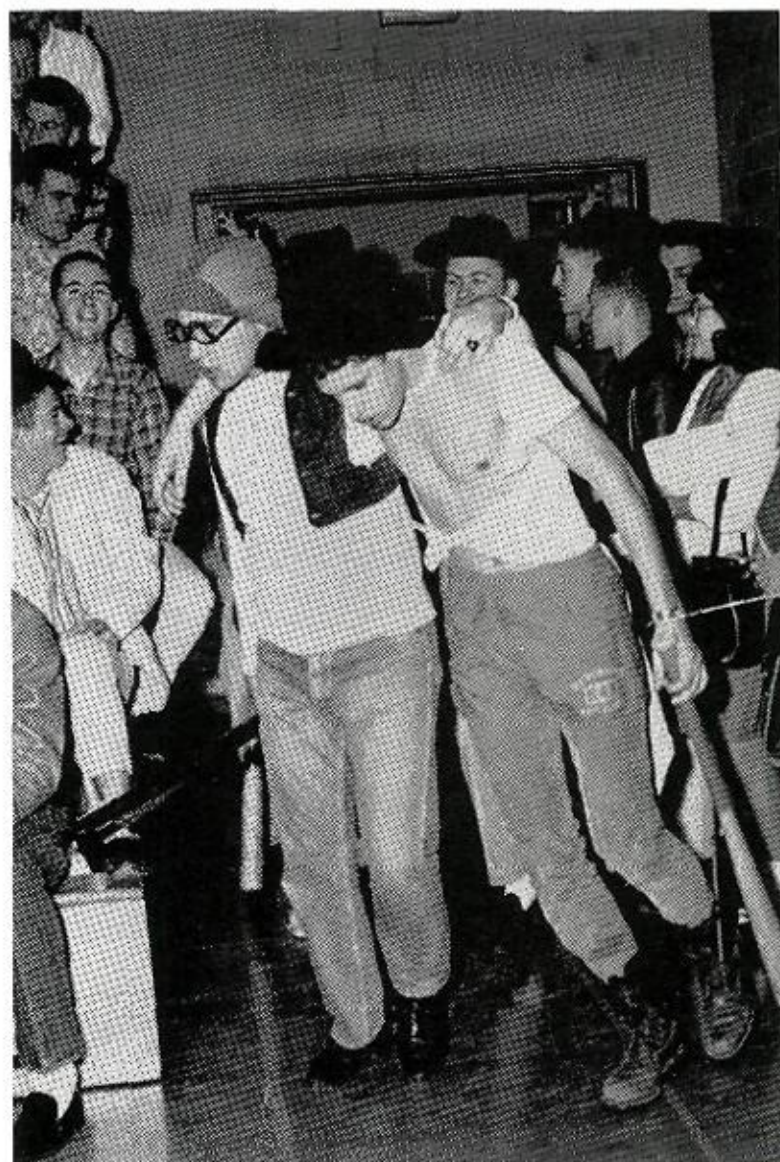

Despite Regional Loss

Playing before a capacity crowd in Bronco Gym, Vern Lane's cagers rolled to an easy bi-district win over Texarkana on February 25th. Above, Steve Fromholz (32) avoids the outstretched arm of an opponent and attempts a shot. Mike Gammon (24) and Jimmy Williams (21) watch the action.

Having won district, the Broncos and all the students at DHS began looking forward to a regional victory over Thomas Jefferson of Dallas, which would be a ticket to the state tournament. Above, the Bronco band gives the team its support during the pep rally held on the morning of the game.

During the course of the pep rally, there appeared some very badly beaten rebels, Terry Smith, John Porter, and Ray Wheeler who had met their fate at the hands of the Denton basketballers. They told their woeful story of a horrible defeat much to the pleasure of the avid Bronco fans.

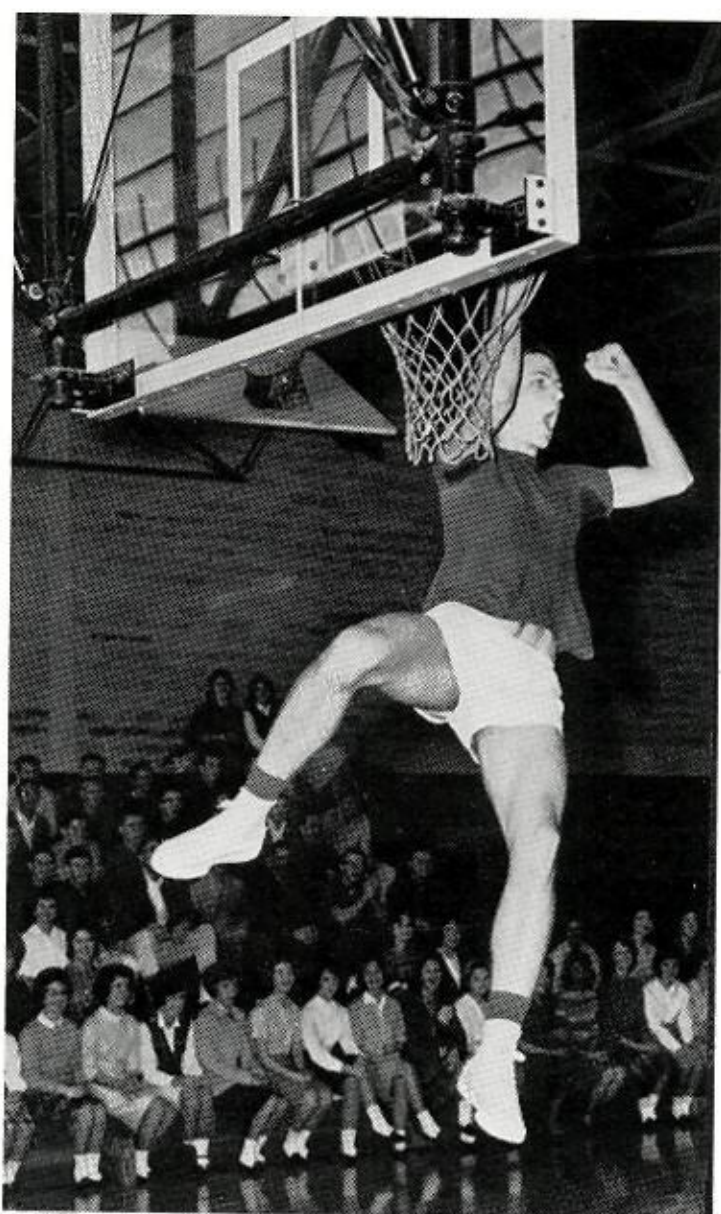

8700 Witness Final Bronco Fight

Playing before the largest crowd ever to see a high school basketball game in Texas, Jimmy Williams (21) goes high into the air to block a Thomas Jefferson shot as Mike Gammon (24) prepares to take the rebound. From the start it was evident that the Broncos had their work cut out for them, for the Rebels jumped to a quick 10-2 lead.

The Bronco's trouble continued throughout the night, the vast gym and the glass blackboards made hitting the basket difficult. Above, Johnny Burks (25) shoots as Thomas Jefferson's all star Bob Glover and several other Rebels look on. The fateful game ended in a 66-46 victory for TJ.

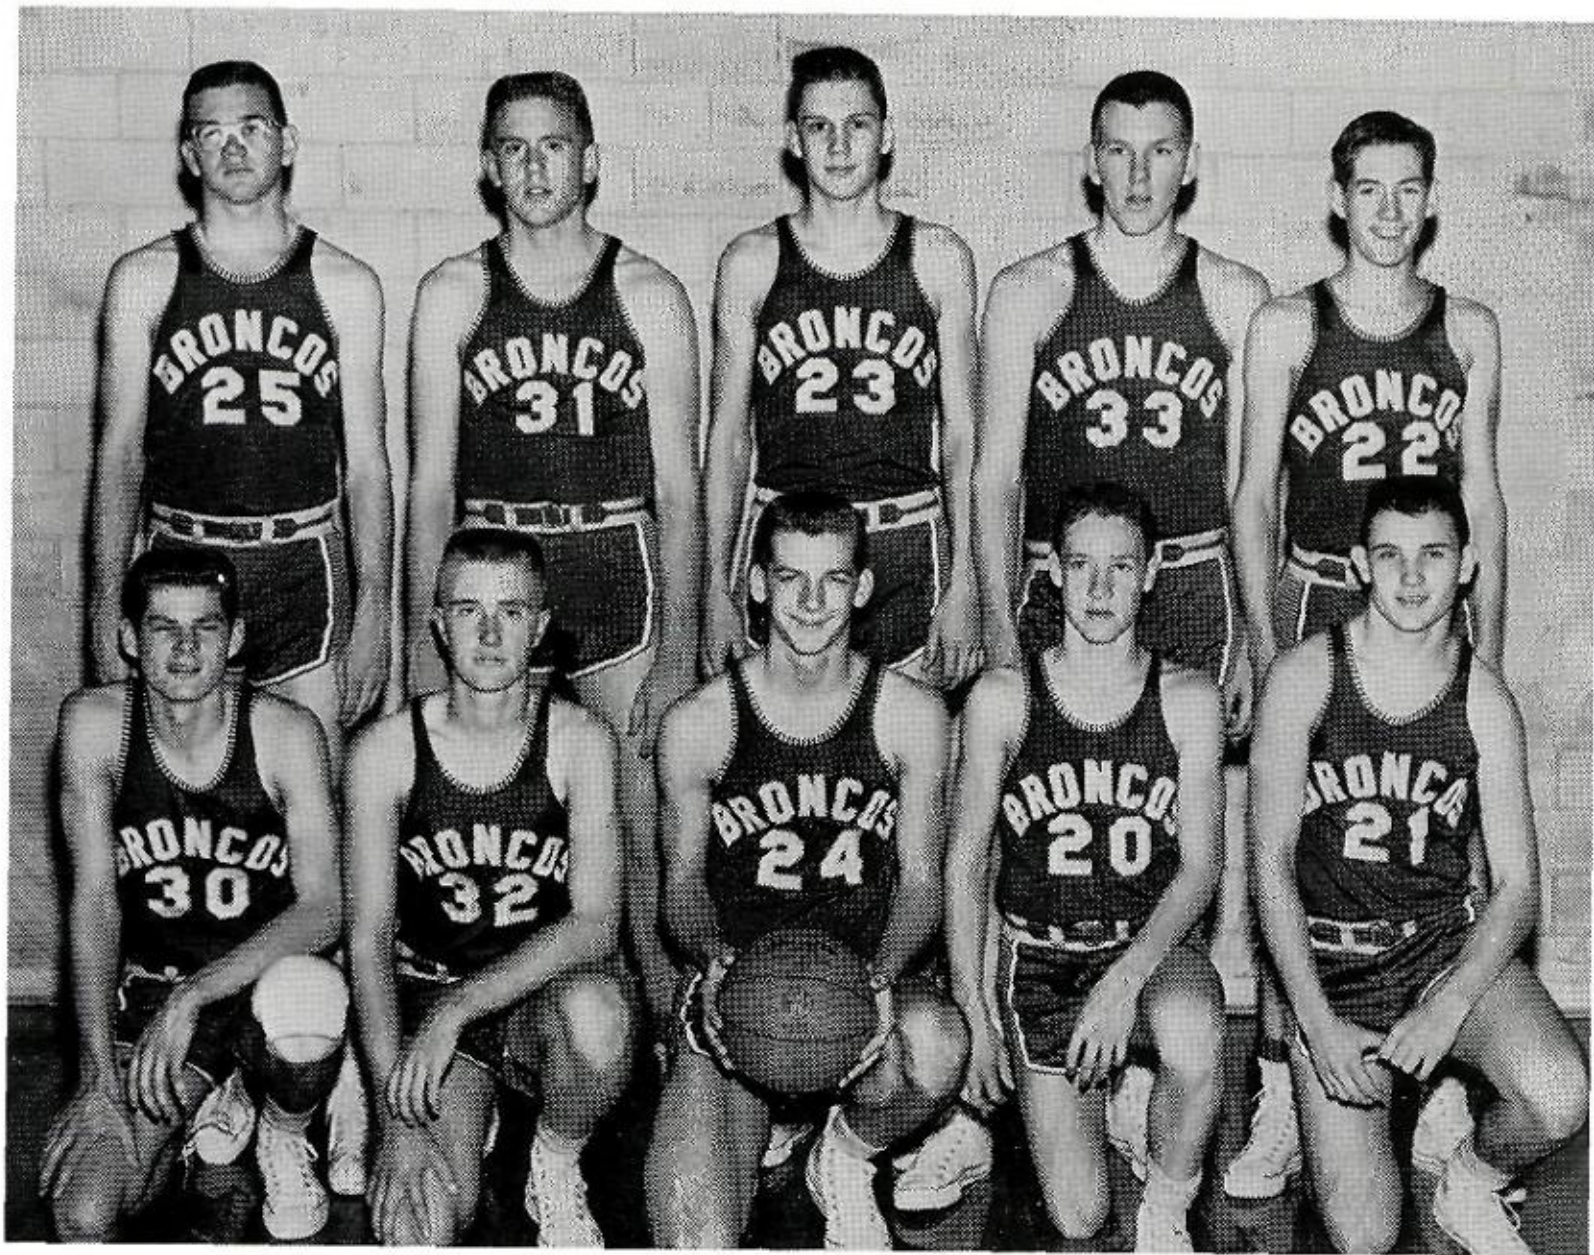

Following TJ's final victory over Denton in the Dr. Pepper tournament, Bob Glover of TJ put on his own personal show for the fans by chinning himself on the basketball rim. Left, Denton's own Bobby Gierisch shows DHS students the tables turned after an anticipated victory over the Rebels.

Becky Clearman soars high in the air to lead the student body in a typical Bronco-boosting yell.

"B" Team's "A" Team's Greatest Asset

Denton High's "B" basketball team enjoyed one of its greatest seasons this year under the coaching guidance of "Cotton" Nix. The cagers chalked up 20 victories while absorbing only two losses, which, by the way, came in the Decatur Tournament at the hands of "A" teams. It looks as though Coach Nix has some good material to offer Coach Lane for the '64 "A" squad.

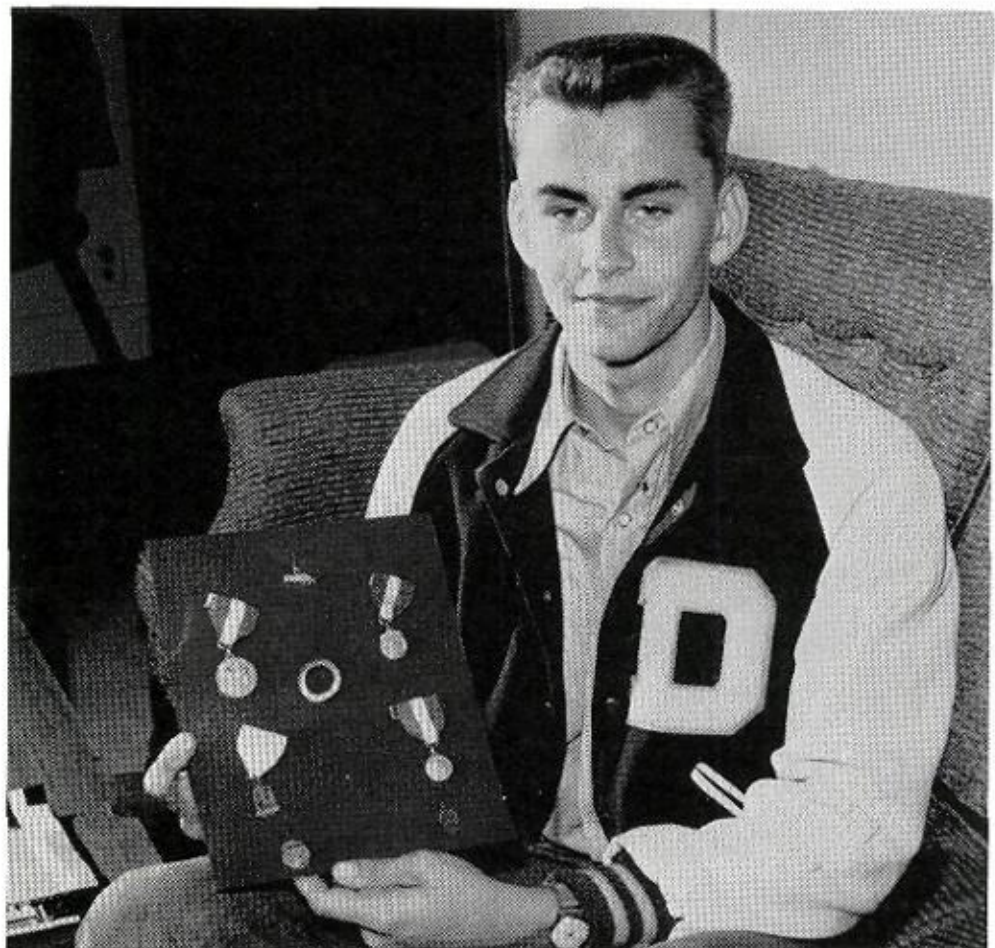

COACH "COTTON" NIX

COACH BILL MICHALKA

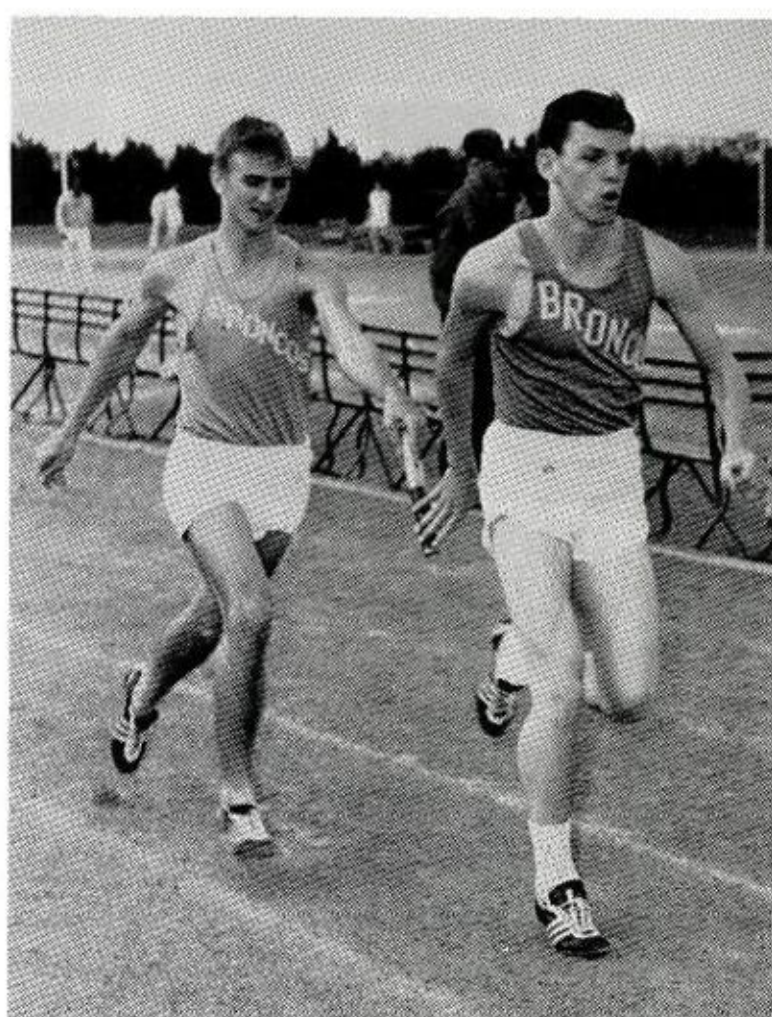

Wayne Ferrell, Denton's capable vaulter who set a new school record by vaulting 13 feet, displays some of his medals he has received for his fine achievements.

Strength, and Sportsmanship

Dickie Sawyer, sophomore at DHS, set a school record by jumping 5 feet 11½ inches. He should be a top competitor in the future.

Clark Lyde hands off the baton to George Christian in a practice relay run at North Texas.

Phil White soars over the high hurdle, a veteran of the track team, Phil is a consistant competitor who has great capabilities.

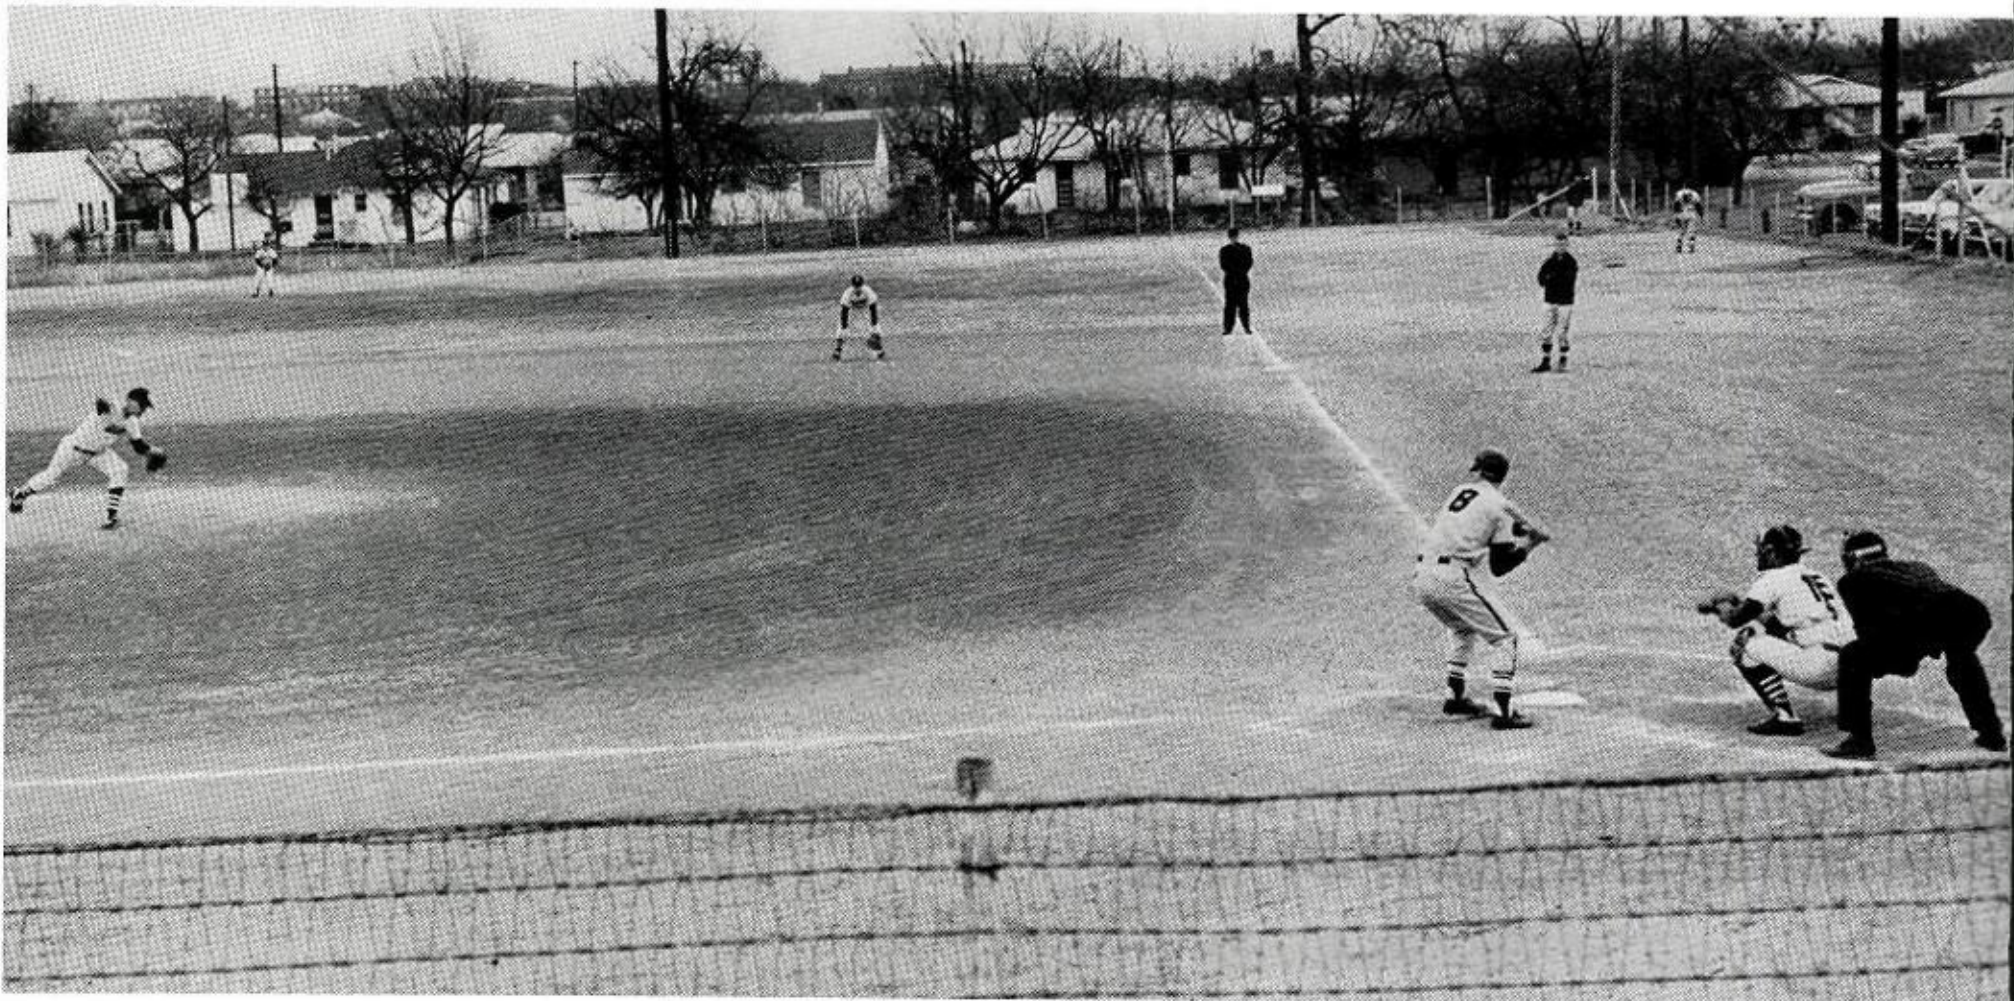

Bill Doss and Bobby Brown take their warm-up trip around the track in preparation for their daily practice. Both boys provide stiff competition in the district 7-A AAAA track meets.

Bottom Row: Ray Wheeler, manager; Terry George, secondbaseman; Bill Ashby, pitcher; Rodney Gambrell, firstbaseman; Larry Bell, outfielder; Ronnie Stark, outfielder; Terry Smith, catcher; Walter Beard, infielder; and Steve Selby, manager. Back Row: Gary Shaw, thirdbaseman; Gary Moon, firstbaseman; Jon Ballard, pitcher; Buddy Heflin, outfielder; Jimmy Williams, pitcher; Mike Gammon, shortstop; George Cockrell, outfielder and firstbaseman; Bobby Gierisch, catcher; and Coach Nix.

Straight District Championship

Head baseball coach Cotton Nix and the Carrollton coach chat about their teams' prospects for the coming year before the start of the fateful game for the Lions.

Denton Shortstop Gary Shaw scores the fifth Bronco run shortly after he doubled off the left-field fence in the first inning of the Carrollton game. District 7-AAAA's leading hitter in 1962, Shaw is expected to be very instrumental in another successful baseball season this year.

This shot of the Bronco bench reveals the many different pre-game attitudes of the members of the team. From left to right, they are Bruce Obermeyer, Rodney Gambrell, Bill Ashby, Buddy Heflin, Mike King, Ronnie Stark, and Walter Beaird. Standing in "the tools of ignorance" is Catcher Terry Smith.

Golfers Gain Ground

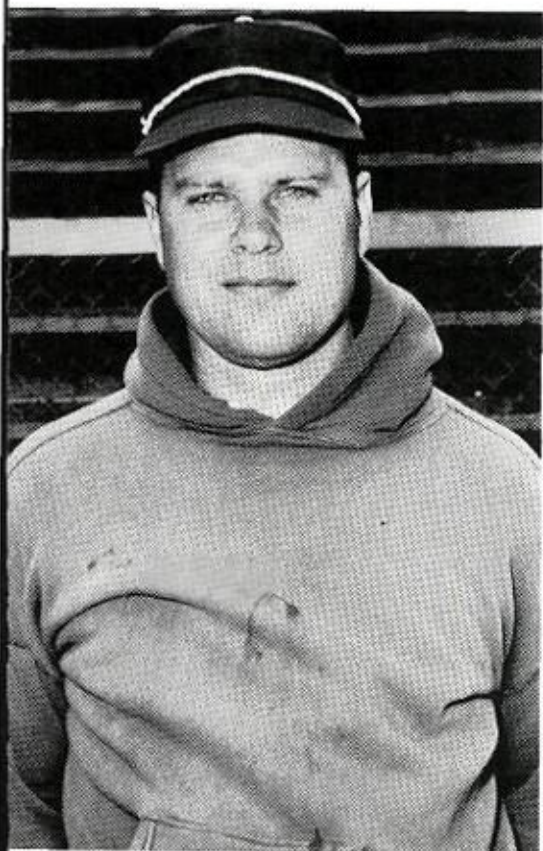

Kneeling: Walt Parker, Johnny Hendrick, Garry Murrell. Standing: Joe Hobson, Don Davis, Richard Shelton, James Tritt.

Seniors James Tritt and Walt Parker take a chipping tip from Don Davis. Davis and Tritt were two of Denton's top contenders.

or District Crown

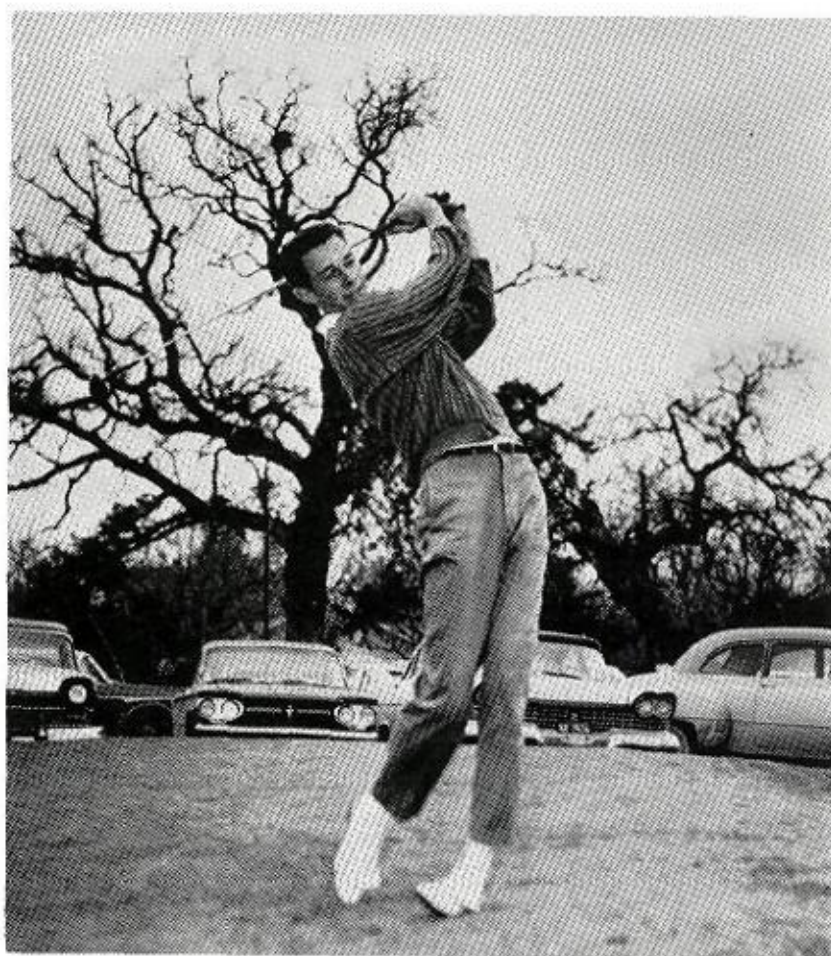

COACH LEWIS WHITSON

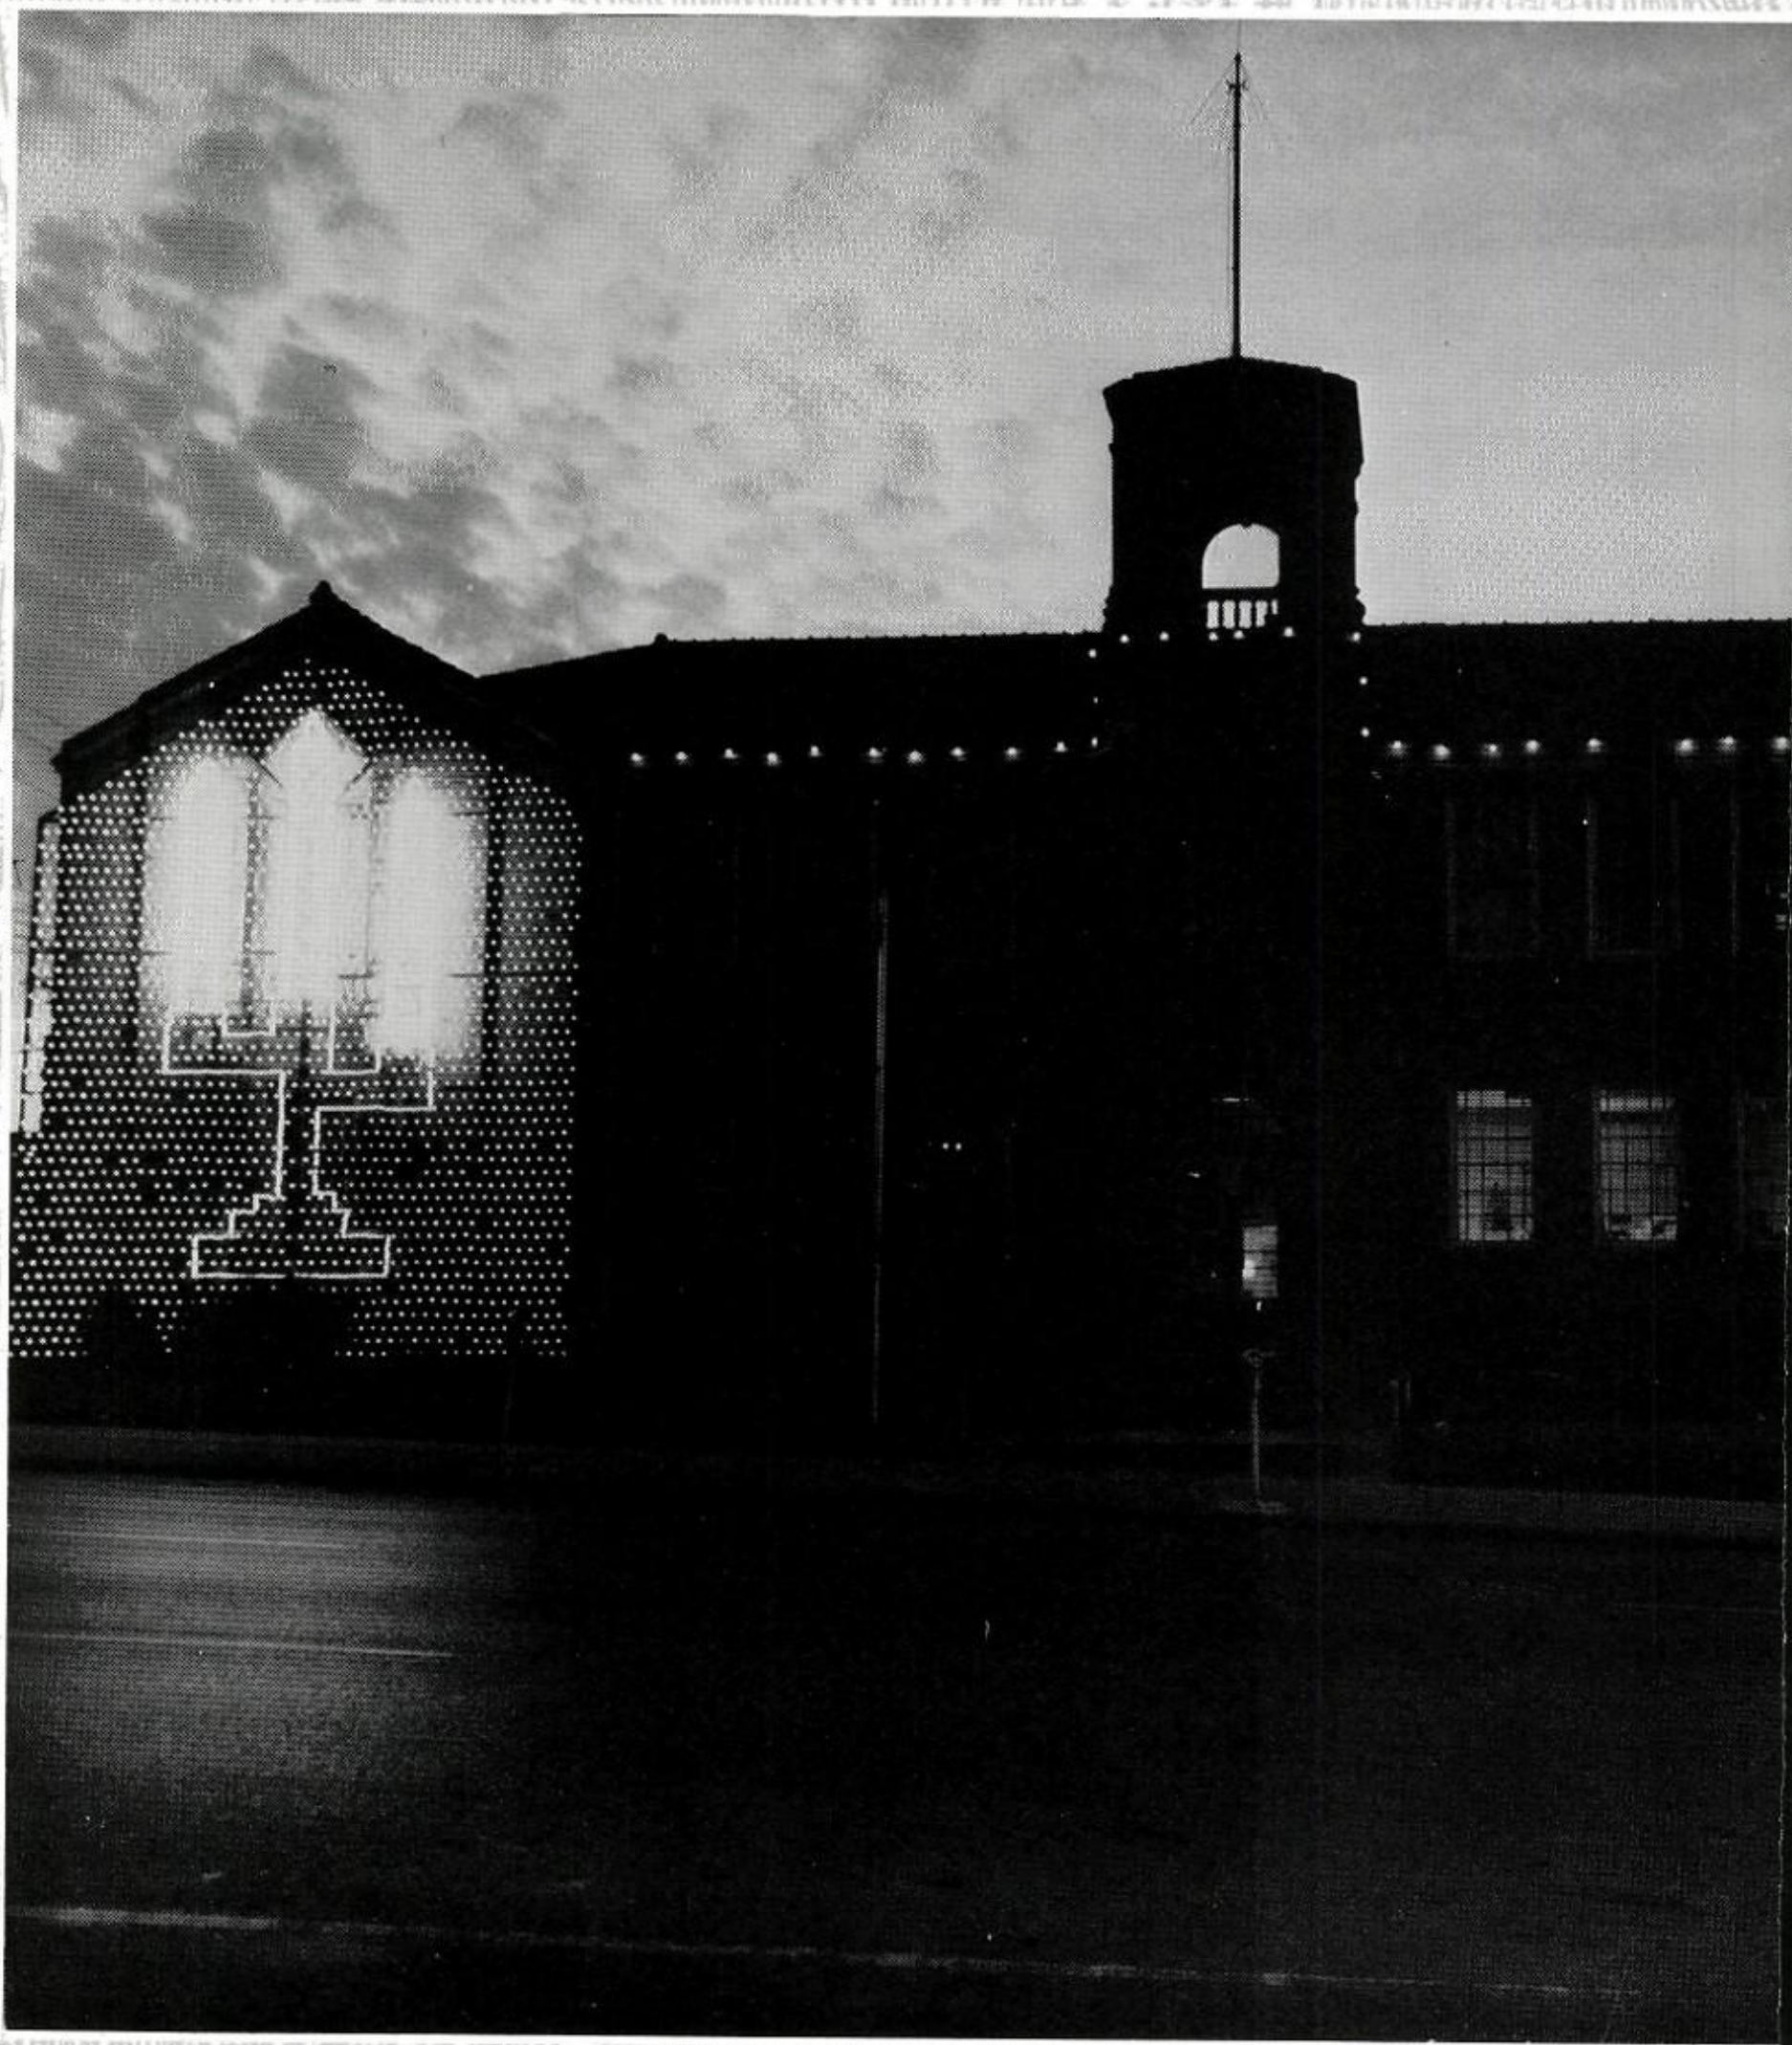

Richard Shelton, our junior ace, bangs in a short putt on the 8th green. Shelton's sensational putting is only one part of his excellent game.

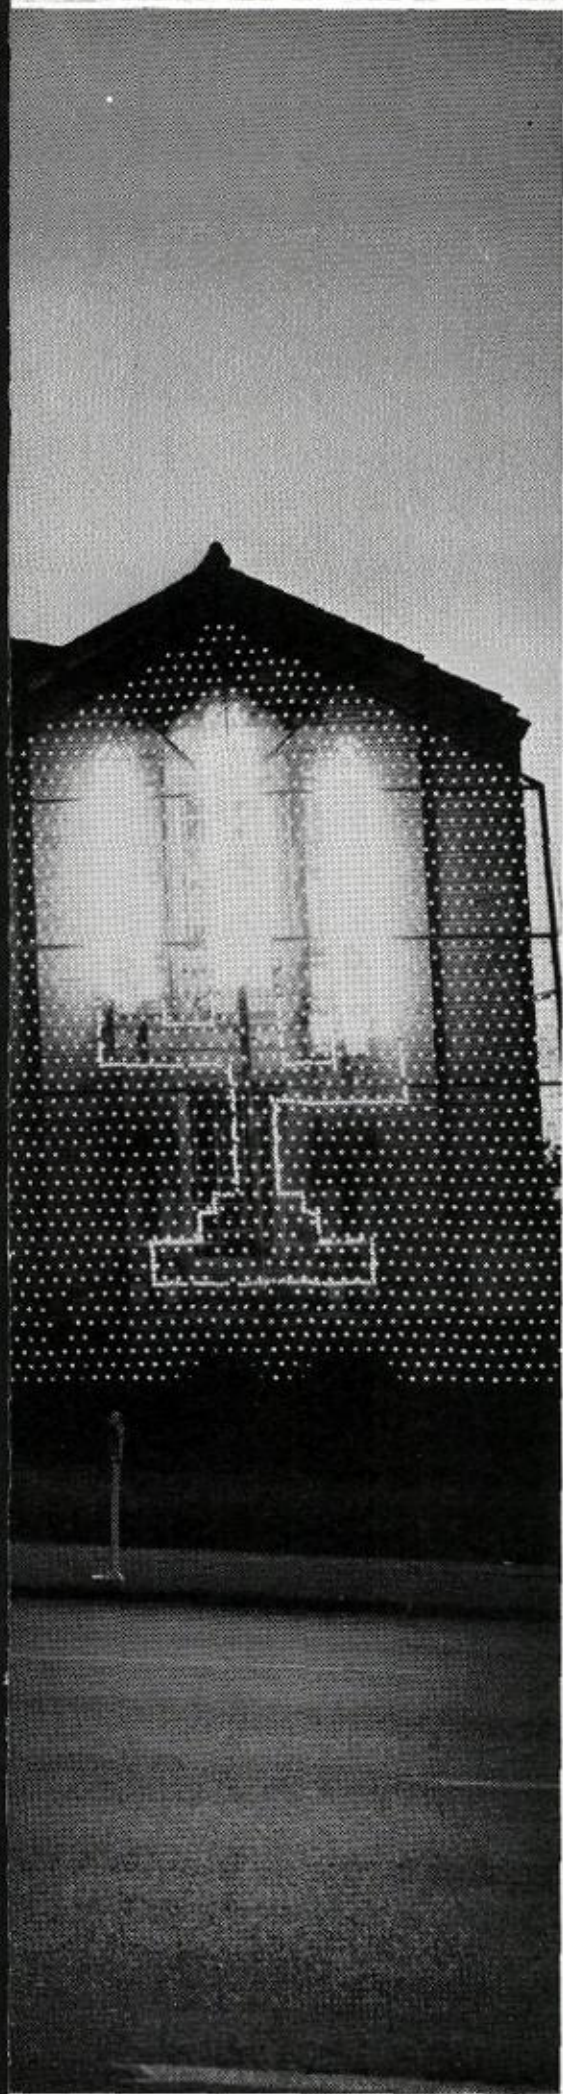

Hobson and Johnny Hendrick discuss their mistakes after a tough golf match.

Smiling senior, James Tritt, views with pride one of his booming drives. Tritt's driving and iron play have helped make him our top senior scorer.

COMMUNITY LIFE

At Christmas time, as well as throughout the entire year, the City Hall stands as a representative of the realm of activities in the community life of Denton. Denton High students are greatly indebted to the merchants of Denton for the important part they play in helping finance our annual. For without the support of these merchants, either the price of the Bronco would be increased or the quality would be decreased. Therefore, it is important that we, the students, do our part in supporting these merchants.

I shall always cherish this year. To me, it is a symphony of unforgettable memories: the fascinating excitement and scheduled activities of being a Junior; the learning of having two wonderful friends as Sue and Val, and, most of all, the many wonderful and fun-filled times I've spent with you. You've shown me how to really laugh and have fun, and to know that there is happiness in this old world I have sometimes felt to be an endless rat race. Boy! Whenever someone is "bad or mad," you have a way of bringing them out of it. Believe me, I know! It's a wonder I haven't died from laughing so much or from getting punched in the side! Hee, that really would have been too bad, wouldn't Robert?

Remember Christmas? Wonderful, wonderful Christmas. It was the best ever! And, needless to say, the Christmas formal will be a night I will never forget. Dauting with games and Peggy was a blast! I can't believe we all sat around the dining room table - formally dressed - eating potato salad, cold cuts, and pickled peaches! - laughing ourselves silly!! - This was surreal, but a blast! - I'm glad you came even on Christmas Day - It seemed the perfect way to end the holiday season. I just really can't tell you how much I loved going to all those places - the

the first one was Christmas Night until the last one that we saw a few weeks. Walking home was wonderful —

Well, here goes for a glass beer on a great year. Football fun — dear old band and pop club the State Fair and the trip to Dallas and Ft. Worth — fun!
Dancing to the swinging music of the "midgets" — These wacky lunch periods are unforgettable. I bet that ^{there} aren't very many people who have the unusual experience of having Hostess chocolate cupcakes and corny dogs served down their throats every day. — Valentine's Day reminds me of Gude Riein — Valentine's formal — Pancake Supper — our dear old fights — all the basketball games and the good times afterward at the juicy Pig and the Kitchen House — that day that you, and Val and Julie were so brave to go to Dallas with me driving by myself — the Regional Basketball game at SMU and the Band concert:
that was fun to be with Ellen and Val for the first time — miniature half-don't worry, I would n't let you lose!! Big flag was loads of fun and ~~there~~ we had a great group:

And, of course, the Junior-Senior Prom — I really can't express how much fun I had — I think our week apart really paid off! Okay, I want to thank you with all my heart for the

You didn't know it, but you have helped make my last year at D.H.S. unforgettable. Being your happy smile between classes made the day just that much brighter. That would I do without you to cheer me up, to make me laugh - to pull me out of the grease when James wouldn't!
Gooo you a thousand times!

Hello Robert -

This year is almost over. I don't think I could stand it much longer. At least we won't have to guess anymore in Biology. Thanks for all of those sweet things - like stealing (or should I say borrowing?) my Biology vocabulary words.

Anyway -

Good luck always

Robert,

P.S. May our friendship know no end.
Our friendship is one of shared joy and sorrow. We've had our good times and our bad times together, haven't we? It's been fun, and it's been painful. I guess growing up is just simply painful.
Robert, you have that certain
"magic something" within you that radiates a smile of love and happiness. I know it as well!
Few people are blessed with this.
Never stop making people
I will always treasure my
